South Viet Nam Army In Need Of Beefing Up

WASHINGTON (AP)—A reorganization of South Viet Nam's armed forces and development of an administrative corps to run the government more efficiently may result from Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara's mission, informed sources indicated today.

There also could be an increase in the size of the South Vietnamese armed forces and a heavier flow of U.S. supplies to help Maj. Gen. Nguyen Khanh, the premier, try to clean out and hold areas now Communist infested.

The consensus of the McNamara mission was that the situation is serious but not hopeless and that the Communist onslaught has leveled off since a sharp upturn after the January coup.

President Johnson has not made any decisions on how far to go on recommendations by McNamara and his mission, sent by Johnson to survey the situation in South Viet Nam in the wake of the Khanh coup.

McNamara, Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, and CIA Director John A. McCone made an hour-long report to Johnson Friday after returning from five days in South Viet Nam.

The defense secretary will return to the White House Monday with a written report in greater detail.

The general thrust of the McNamara mission findings was that the war will be decided in South Viet Nam rather than outside, and its recommendations are pointed to that end.

Big Problems Ahead

Even if the flow of arms and men from the Communist north were halted, the mission felt, there still would be the big job of clearing out the guerrilla rebels and solving huge economic, political and social problems so the country could achieve stability.

Sources familiar with what went on during the fact-finding tour denied emphatically that there was any agreement on any plan to step up sabotage and guerrilla activities inside Red North Viet Nam.

The question of possible operations inside North Viet Nam was discussed. But sources emphasized the discussions were included in consideration of a whole range of possible courses. This is the usual practice.

No major change of direction in U.S. policy on South Viet Nam is considered likely in the wake of the McNamara mission, the fourth in nearly two years.

Instead, it appears there probably will be changes in emphasis and volume.

If the South Vietnamese forces are increased, as Khanh evidently wishes, the United States may send more combat unit trainers and field advisers.

But, sources said, there has been no change in the U.S. goal of withdrawing as many trainers as possible as soon and as fast as their job is done.

Officials avoided restating the previously announced objective of getting most of the 15,500 American military men out of South Viet Nam by the end of 1965.

Dallas Jury Finds Jack Ruby Guilty

Flood Disaster Help Promised To Five States

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson will designate parts of five states in the flood-stricken Ohio River Valley as major disaster areas.

The action, possibly today, follows a pledge the President made Friday at Cincinnati—the final stop on his five-hour, dramatic inspection trip—that "no time will be lost" in speeding aid to victims of the worst Ohio River flood since 1945.

The President will make the designations as soon as governors of the waterlogged states apply for disaster grants and establish eligibility for the federal money. Aid allocations will mount into the millions of dollars.

On the basis of first hand reports given Johnson during his hastily arranged, 740-mile aerial survey, the following states will be able to claim federal funds to help rebuild and repair essential public facilities: Ohio, Indiana, West Virginia, Kentucky, and Missouri.

Illinois and Pennsylvania, which were included on Johnson's low-altitude tour, will be eligible for less sweeping federal assistance such as free grain for livestock and easy-credit loans for property owners victimized by the muddy water.

At the Cincinnati airport Johnson said he would expedite federal aid "on the basis of what I saw." And he said all Americans joined him "in expressing our sympathy to those who have suffered" in the disaster that affected an estimated 110,000 people and caused damage of $50 million.

The quick trip, to dramatize Johnson's contention that compassion is not incompatible with federal frugality, inevitably was laden with political implications in this election year.

RIVER RECEDES

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Flood victims along the Ohio River and its tributaries—most of them now waiting for the water to go down—had personal assurance from President Johnson today that aid would be sped to them.

He flew over the area and saw what they had lived with for almost a week—isolated towns, submerged homes and roads and other devastation from the third worst flooding in this century.

As Johnson made his flight Friday, the river was receding at Louisville and upstream. But its crest had yet to pass western Kentucky and southern portions of Indiana and Illinois.

It already has left 11 dead, more than $50 million in damages and, by Red Cross estimates, 110,000 persons affected.

Louisville relaxed as its flood wall withstood a crest of 46.2 feet, 18.2 feet above flood stage, but hundreds of residents outside the city had flooded homes. Little West Point, Ky., with some 100 people left in the 2,300-population town after mass evacuation earlier, had 99-per cent damage, in varying degree, officials estimated. Most of Main Street was under 4 to 8 feet of water.

Downriver, Lewisport was reported entirely underwater. The town's population of nearly 700 fled to homes of relatives and friends on high ground.

Jack Ruby

Oswald Killer Sentenced To Death In Chair

DALLAS (AP) — Jack Ruby was convicted today of murdering Lee Harvey Oswald, and sentenced to death in the electric chair.

Judge Joe B. Brown read the verdict at 12:22 p.m. CST.

He then ordered the jurors escorted back to the deliberation room and dismissed.

There was no demonstration—following the judge's instructions that the courtroom audience must remain quiet and seated until dismissed.

Chief Defense Atty. Melvin Belli said, "This jury wasn't even concerned with listening to our arguments. They had their minds made up ... we'll appeal ... we'll appeal today.

"Railroad? This was a kangaroo jury."

"Errors" Claimed

Belli shouted to newsmen that Judge Brown "went down the line with every motion the district attorney made, and they led him into some 30 errors." He asked that the record show that the jury deliberated only about two hours and 20 minutes.

Judge Brown, as he took the bench, said, "I am about to receive a verdict in this case. I want no demonstrations of any kind."

He looked toward the jurors and said, "you have your verdict ready?"

Several jurors spokeout in assent.

"May I have it?" the judge said.

A bailiff handed the slip of paper up to the bench. Brown riffled through the pages until he found the written verdict. He then read it aloud.

Turning to the jury he said, "Is this unanimous? So say you all? Please hold up your right hand."

The eight men and four women, as though on cue, made the gesture.

Dist. Atty. Henry M. Wade said the facts fully warranted the death penalty. He described Ruby's killing of Lee Harvey Oswald, accused - assassin of President John F. Kennedy, as "an assassination in itself."

Ruby shot Oswald in the basement of the Dallas City Hall two days after President Kennedy was killed here Nov. 24.

The defense's next move will be to appeal the case to the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals. Ruby will be held in the Dallas County Jail pending the decision of that tribunal.

Baker Inquiry Gets New Life

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republicans have fired some new life into the Bobby Baker investigation, pulling it back from death's door.

GOP members of the Senate Rules Committee unveiled a sworn statement by an accountant that his name had been forged to some of Baker's tax returns.

The disclosure came as the committee's special counsel, L. P. McLendon, was recommending in a closed session Friday that the hearings be ended and a report drafted.

Republicans, opposing the move, demanded that more witnesses be called and that Internal Revenue officials be questioned about the handling of the former Senate aide's income tax returns. Baker resigned Oct. 7 as secretary to the Senate's Democratic majority after allegations of conflict of interest.

In McLendon's secret report recommending that the hearings be wrapped up—made public by Sen. Carl T. Curtis, R-Neb. — the counsel told the committee the inquiry had revealed "improprieties of the grossest character."

Changes In Compensation Laws Called 'Dynamite'

LANSING (AP) — Proposed changes in Michigan workmen's compensation laws — pending action in the House Labor Committee — are being watched with a wary eye by Governor George W. Romney's administration.

The proposals, subject of an explosive hearing this past week and which must be reported out by next Wednesday, could have far-reaching political implications.

One veteran Capitol lobbyist refers to them, in fact, as "political dynamite" and predicts that a wrong move by Romney could cost him 100,000 votes later this election year.

A "wrong move," in the eyes of virtually every labor organization in the state, would be for the bills to pass, then die under a governor's veto.

Disability Defined

Controvery centers primarily on an "omnibus" bill amending several parts of the workmen's compensation law, which provides for benefits from an employers-supported fund to be paid to workers injured or disabled on the job.

Among the proposed changes:

—Redefining "disabled" to apply only to a worker rendered incapable of performing any work, instead of simply the work engaged in at the time of injury, as under present law.

—Requiring that a full report of the injury be furnished to the employer within 30 days and the claim filed with the state within one year, under penalty of forfeiting the claim altogether.

—Eliminating overtime, bonuses and other extra pay from the average hourly wage used for computing compensation payable under an approved claim.

The bill is sponsored by Rep. Riemer Van Til, R - Holland, chairman of the House Labor Committee, and four other GOP members of the nine-member committee.

Former Wrangle Recalled

The budding dispute resembles the 1963 Ford-Canton controversy which concerned unemployment benefits for workers laid off as the result of strikes.

As in that wrangle, unionists accuse Romney of accepting ideas drafted by management for its own benefit and representing them as joint labor-management proposals.

But Richard Schmidt, a UAW expert on workmen's compensation, claims the Van Til bill really is the work of George Van Peursem, former Republican House speaker, GOP state chairman, Labor Committee chairman and now lobbyist for the Michigan Manufacturers Association.

The governor's staff denies, however, that the proposals are a "Romney - Republican package" as labeled by the Michigan AFL-CIO News.

First, these are not the recommendations of the Romney study committee because it never made any as a group," said Legal Aide Robert Danhof.

"This bill incorporates most of the employer recommendations of the committee but it is not an administration bill. The governor's office has not asked for any legislation on workmen's compensation this year.

"Our only proposals in this field are budget requests for additional department staff."

Train Blasters Hunted By FBI

FORT PIERCE, Fla. (AP) — The FBI looked today for a fourth man — and perhaps others — in connection with the dynamiting of Florida East Coast Railway freight trains that are running despite a strike.

Three former employes have been arrested. Two were charged with trying to blow up a train Thursday night. The third was charged with conspiracy.

Agents refused to comment on their investigation but one said, "At least we're getting a few breaks."

Two men were arrested after an 18-man stake-out at a railroad trestle in Indian River County, 10 miles to the north. They were John Wesley Davis, 23, of nearby Port St. Lucie known as the "barefoot picket", and Joseph Leo Vedder, 32, of Miami. They made bond of $50,000 each after being bound over Friday for grand jury action. No one would say who put up the money.

The third man, Hugh Winn, 56, of Miami, was held on $75,000 bond. His arraignment in Miami was continued until March 26. Asst. U.S. Atty. Aaron A. Foosaner said Winn had sold dynamite to Vedder and Davis.

House-Senate Rift Widens On 2-Week Recess

LANSING (AP)—The rift between the House and Senate over whether to recess the legislature to gain time for dealing exclusively with spending bills appeared to be widening today.

Senate majority leader Stanley Thayer, R-Ann Arbor, Friday raised the possibility of a special legislative session for this purpose.

It was Thayer's parting shot after a week in which the Hose Ways and Means Committee, through Speaker Allison Green, R-Kingston, proposed a two-week recess.

Solid opposition developed in the Senate, and by the time the proposal reached resolution form, the recess had been cut to one week, beginning March 30. This still has not been brought to a vote.

Green said the Thayer proposal sounded like a "threat" and termed the idea of a special session "silly."

Lt. Gov. T. John Lesinski said talk now of a special session is premature, and that it would be a needless expense to taxpayers.

"I'm sure we could complete our work if we got down to it," he said. He also has opposed the recess idea "unless I see more justification for it than has been presented."

For the first time in a week, Green indicated the House might settle for a mere extension of the deadline for committee approval of the bills, with the legislature continuing to work straight through.

Federal Prison Frees Member Of Purple Gang

DETROIT (AP) — A onetime member of Detroit's infamous Purple Gang of the 1920s, Louis Fleisher, was ordered released from a federal prison Friday on grounds that the act under which he was convicted was unconstitutional.

Fleisher, 57, was sentenced in 1938 to serve 30 years on six convictions under the National Firearms Act, ruled unconstitutional in 1962 by a federal court in San Francisco.

The court said the law was void because it required persons possessing illegal firearms to register them, thus admitting they owned illegal weapons. The court said this required persons to testify against themselves, in violation of the U. S. Constitution's Fifth Amendment.

Police confiscated what they called "the biggest gangster arsenal ever found in the Midwest" in a raid on Fleisher's suburban Highland Park apartment in 1938.

Police said the arsenal included sub-machine guns, revolvers with silencers and a dozen tear gas shells.

Goldy And Rocky Tangle Over Social Security

WASHINGTON (AP) —California, where many senior citizens live, is the scene of a new Goldwater - Rockefeller talking match over Social Security.

Sharp words flew over the issue in the New Hampshire GOP presidential primary campaign, and they are flying again in California.

When Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona suggested in New Hampshire that Social Security should be made voluntary — in place of the present compulsory taxation of workers and employers—Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York hit back quickly.

"Back To Poorhouse"

He said Goldwater's idea would bankrupt the system and "take us right back to the poorhouse" conception of relief.

Rockefeller kept peppering away, and Goldwater kept explaining. He denied he wanted to end Social Security; he said his aim is to improve it. The night before the balloting he wound up proclaiming himself a card-carrying member of, and firm supporter, of Social Security.

What part the issue played in the results will, of course, never be known exactly. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge, who wasn't there to talk about Social Security or any other issue, won a resounding victory.

In California Friday Goldwater and Rockefeller were at it again.

Goldwater said at a rally in Visalia that he wants to see the system strengthened but that it cannot be "if we saddle it" with medical and mental-health care.

Rockefeller, speaking at the University of Southern California in Los Angeles, described the senator's views as "extremism."

Fewer Oldsters

The issue may not be so hot in California as it was in New Hampshire. Contrary to some popular impressions, the percentage of oldsters is smaller in California than, for example, in New England.

The 1960 census showed that 8.8 per cent of California's population of 15,717,204 was 65 years of age or older. But 11.2 per cent of New Hampshire's 606,921 people were in this age bracket. For the country as a whole the percentage of population 65 or older was 9.2 in 1960.

Goldwater's leanings toward a voluntary plan antedate the New Hampshire primary. In radio-television interviews last spring, for example, he predicted an eventual "revolt" among working people against increasing taxation for Social Security.

If proposed health care for the aged is added to gradual increases in taxes already slated, he said, it "means that by 1970 an individual could take the money that he and his employer spend on Social Security and buy twice as good a policy to cover everything that Social Security proposes to cover."

Minister Dies

OTTAWA (AP) — John R. Garland, Canada's national revenue minister, died aboard a train of an apparent heart attack early today.

Garland, 46, was one of the youngest members of Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson's cabinet. He was 6 foot 2 and weighed more than 300 pounds.

Gen. Clark, 68, Leaves Citadel

CHARLESTON, S.C. (AP) — Gen. Mark W. Clark, 68, announced Friday he will retire as president of The Citadel, South Carolina's four-year military college.

Gen. Clark, who led the U.S. 5th Army in Italy during World War II, said he was retiring for "reasons of rest and recreation" and because of the poor health of his wife. After his retirement the Clarks will live in Charleston.

Threats Of War Eased In Cyprus

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y (AP)—The Cyprus crisis eased today after the Security Council had met Turkey's invasion threat with a hands-off warning and Canada had sped a peacekeeping vanguard toward the island.

Meeting in emergency session the 11-nation council moved swiftly Friday night after Turkey had threatened to send in troops and the Greek Cypriot government had retorted that intervention would mean war.

Canada dispatched a planeload of officers toward the troubled eastern Mediterranean island as an advance party for 1,150 Canadian soldiers expected there within two weeks. The vanguard was due on Cyprus today.

Greek Cypriots, put on a war footing after the Turkish warning, were relaxed somewhat with the rapid U.N. move. A Greek Cypriot government spokesman seemed to sum up the feeling in several capitals with this remark: "We can sleep peacefully now."

The Security Council met on less than three hours' notice to hear Secretary - General U Thant plead with Turkey against going through with its threat to intervene to protect badly outnumbered Turkish Cypriots.

CYPRUS (1) was warned by Turkey of possible intervention unless attacks on Turkish Cypriots are stopped. Turkish forced were reported aboard ships at Iskenderun (2). Meantime, 20,000 demonstrated in Ankara (3) for a Cyprus invasion while President Makarios of Cyprus met with Greek leaders in Athens (4). (AP Wirephoto map)

Mexico City Gets Welcome Ready For De Gaulle

MEXIC OCITY (AP)—Preparations for the arrival of French President Charles de Gaulle on Monday moved at a feverish pace today.

Newspapers extolled De Gaulle as a great statesman, poster-size portraits of the French leader were hung along the capital's major boulevards, radio and television played French music and a government helicopter flew over Mexico City Friday playing the French national anthem.

The government ordered the tightest security measures ever imposed on the capital, and the preparations for the welcome appear to exceed those for the visit of any other foreign chief of state, including President John F. Kennedy, who received a tumultuous welcome in 1962.

Legion Nears Member Goal

Commander Lee Thompson hopes to announce that Cloverland Post 82, of the American Legion, Escanaba, is over the top on its membership quota at the big birthday party at the Legion clubhouse, 928 N. 21st St., at 6:30 p. m. Monday.

The smorgasbord to be served by the Post Auxiliary and the program to follow celebrating the Legion's 45th birthday will be open to all veterans of military service, said Thompson, and no reservations are necessary. Mrs. John Finn is chairman of the dinner committee.

Thompson said that the post was within 15 of its membership quota today and that he hoped late reports would show its membership drive successful by Monday. The quota is 230.

John A. Lemmer will be the speaker and L. A. Danielson will be toastmaster. The Harmony Gals quartet will entertain and the assembly will sing World War I and II songs to accompaniment of Clinton E. Groos, pianist.

Highway Weight Limits In Effect Starting Monday

The spring thaw is at hand and the State Highway Department announces that weight limit restrictions in the U. P. will go into effect on all roads beginning Monday noon.

The load limit regulation applies not only to all trunkline highways in the Upper Peninsula but to all Delta County roads as well, and to U. S. Forest Service roads also.

The frost is coming out of the ground slowly, but with the prospect of rain and warmer weather the breakup will become more rapid, making it necessary to reduce vehicle loads so that roadways will not be damaged.

City Recreation Program Studied

A better integrated community recreation program utilizing additional school facilities has been suggested to the City Council by Escanaba City Manager George Harvey.

This thought was communicated to the Council in the city manager's recent news letter.

"In the light of what has happened, it is my intention to take time to appraise the entire recreation program before any thought is given to a replacement," the city manager advised.

"Presently we are between seasons as far as recreational activity is concerned. As you know, the basketball program is completed, and hockey and outdoor skating are over for the season."

"The only activity in operation is Club 314, and it is my intention to have Paul Vardigan assume command in the evenings and Francis Luneburg will continue his regular schedule during the day," Harvey said.

"For some time there has been a thought in my mind that we might be able to get a broader recreation program for the same amount of money through a mutual City-School recreation program," the city manager continued. "This will be analyzed and an approach will be made to the school authorities to get their thinking on such a proposal."

"We presently utilize the Junior High gym for the basketball program, and the Webster School for the Youth Center. It seems that it might be feasible to utilize more of the school facilities in our recreation program."

The Hiawathaland Council includes all Boy Scouts troops in the Upper Peninsula. Sergeant Shane is scoutmaster of Troop 350 at the base.

Italy's Past Is Gold Mine

By JAMES M. LONG

ROME (AP)—After 20 to 30 centuries, Italy's greatest goldmine is still the buried archaeological treasures of its fabled past.

The take each year is fabulous—in priceless finds for museums and hundreds of thousands of dollars in contraband for smugglers.

Found in the past few months have been the long lost Greek colony of Sybaris, whose dancing horses led to the downfall of a luxury-loving populace, and the mystery mummy girl of Grottarossa whose body after 1,800 years still is scented with the perfume of an unknown art of embalming.

Mystery City Sought

Still sought were Spina, last mystery city of the long dead Etruscans, a Rosetta stone clue to translation of the still unreadable Etruscan language, and relics of the Greek warfleet that sank 2,376 years ago at Siracusa (Syracuse) in the greatest naval defeat in history.

Under Italian law all archchaeologic objects—the old or the newly discovered—are property of the state.

That was prompted by necessity. A few centuries ago noble Roman families hauled away statues and whole buildings of ancient Rome to decorate their villas.

In far southern Italy aerial photographs finally disclosed the outlines of what Italian archaeologists are convinced is long lost Sybaris. Digging has just started.

Sybaris was the Greek colony whose late to bed and late to rise habits made Sybarite a synonym for voluptuous living.

It was founded by the Greeks in 720 B.C. and was danced to doom 2,500 years ago by its performing horses.

Victory By Trick

The Sybarites had trained them to dance to music as entertainment at the nightly wine fetes. When Sybaris was attacked by its poorer and weaker neighbor Croton, the Crotonians won by a trick.

When the famed Sybarite cavalry charged their infantry ranks, the Crotonian band played dance music and the charge broke into chaos as the Sybarite horses pranced and pirouetted to the tune.

The latest major find was the mystery mummy of a girl of 7 or 9, dug up amazingly after 18 centuries at Grottarossa, just north of Rome.

The embalming process, with a fluid still fragrant after the centuries, is believed to be Oriental or Egyptian. The theory is that the child was the daughter of a Roman consul in the east, that she died there and was embalmed so that her body could be brought home for burial.

American archaeologists, particularly from Princeton University and the University of Pennsylvania, have taken a prominent part in the excavations in Italy.

RAGS AND used clothing are placed by Mrs. Jerome Deloria in a collection container at Ludington and 15th St. to aid the "rags to riches" drive of the Exchange Club and the Aqua-Nuts. (Daily Press Photo)

'Rags To Riches'

Drive For Funds To Aid Children

A 'rags to riches' project that will bring much-needed funds to aid children of the community is being sponsored by the Escanaba Exchange Club with the cooperation of the Escanaba Aqua-Nuts, a group of water ski enthusiasts.

Rags will be collected throughout the community, cleaned, and sold to industrial and commercial facilities in the area. All proceeds will go to the Exchange Club's Dental Fund and to the School for Retarded Children.

Saturday, April 4 and Saturday, April 11 are the dates set for the collection of rags, said Tom Gasman, committee chairman.

Collections will be made on Escanaba's south side beginning at 10 a. m. on April 4. Twelve trucks—six trucks on avenues and six on streets—will be used for the pick-up of rags. Residents are asked to place old clothing and rags in cartons and place them at the curbs or on their porches for easy collection.

The same method of pick-up will be used on the north side on April 11.

For persons who wish to contribute rags by taking them to one of the several pick-up stations, the rags may be delivered to one of those gasoline stations:

Hengesh at Ludington and 15th Sts., Lancour at Ludington and 11th Sts., Don's at 801 S. 23rd St., and in Gladstone at Johnson's Service Station.

The collected rags will be taken to the John A. Lemmer school where they will be prepared for processing by removal of buttons, zippers and so forth. The rags will be washed, sterilized and baled and then sold.

Gasman as chairman of the committee asked the cooperation of the public in furthering the project to assure that as much money as possible is raised for the benefit of the children's programs.

The Exchange Club is one of the oldest civic service clubs in the nation. The name is derived from the exchange of ideas by members for the betterment of the community. The Escanaba club was chartered a little more than four years ago. Since then it has aided in a number of projects and originated the Dental Fund for Delta County's underprivileged children.

The Aqua-Nuts, reorganized a few years ago, has presented entertaining water skiing programs at the waterfront, and last summer they sponsored a water show with proceeds going to help finance the day school for Retarded Children. Their cooperation in the 'rags to riches' project will also benefit the school project.

Spear Waters Named By State

The Conservation Department has declared open to use of spears and bows and arrows for taking carp, suckers, redhorse, mullet, dogfish and garpike in May the following U. P. streams, with some restrictions by areas on the waters; with or without artificial lights:

Alger County: Big Indians River.

Delta County: Bark, Big, Ford, Ogontz, Sturgeon and Tacoosh rivers, Bull Run, Garden, Johnson, Martins, Mile, Mink, Schaawe and Squaw creeks.

Luce County: Blind Sucker and Tahquamenon rivers and Helmer Creek.

BENT-OVER FRIEND

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—Construction company owner Harold Irvin checked in at the office late one Saturday afternoon.

He found a man crouched under a desk.

Asked Irvin: "What are you doing down there?"

Replied the man: "Oh, just waiting for a friend."

He was booked on suspicion of first degree burglary.

Rearick Named Park Executive

Paul Rearick, the Conservation Department's regional parks and recreation acting supervisor, has been promoted to park executive in the Lansing office, it is announced by Glenn Gregg, regional manager, Marquette.

Rearick was assistant regional park supervisor under Gregg, who in the administrative reorganization of the department was promoted to regional manager.

Grant Wykhuis, assistant regional parks supervisor at Roscommon, has been promoted to regional parks supervisor at Marquette. A native of Oosberg, Wis., he began employment with the department in 1946. He served in the Navy from December of 1941 to October of 1944, and is a graduate of Hope College and the University of Michigan with a BS degree in forestry. Wykhuis is married and the father of two children.

Leonard Bierlein Sr., presently park manager at Tahquamenon State Park, Newberry, has been promoted to assistant regional park supervisor. Bierlein is a native of southern Michigan, attended the Ann Arbor Public Schools and received his master's degree in recreation forestry from Michigan State University in 1950. A veteran of World War II, he served during 1944-46. He is married and has two sons and one daughter.

Bierlein began employment with the department as part-time ranger in 1950 and was transferred to the Tahquamenon State Park in 1960.

Rearick, a native of Indiana and veteran of four years of Army service in the southwest Pacific from 1941 to 1945, received his early schooling at Hastings, is married and the father of four children. He began employment with Department in 1946 as a park ranger at the Yankee Springs Recreation Area in southern Michigan

While in the Upper Peninsula he snpervised the management of seven of the eastern Upper Peninsula parks. During this time, campground facilities have doubled. New toilet and bathhouse buildings have been constructed and remodelled in four parks and sewage lines and water system to handle the expanded campground was planned and constructed in five parks.

At his new job in Lansing, Rearick will be responsible for the development of park policies, procedures, operation, rules and regulations. He will also be responsible for the conservation-corrections prison camp program, supervise scheduling of outdoor centers and represent the parks division at state and national meetings and other relative duties.

Dinner To Hear State Librarian

Miss Genevieve Casey, Michigan state librarian, will be speaker at a dinner Saturday night, April 11, at the House of Ludington opening the Delta-Schoolcraft county observance of National Library Week.

The public is invited to the dinner, which is being sponsored by Delta Schoolcraft National Library Week Committee, and tickets will be sold at the Escanaba, Gladstone and Manistique libraries.

The committee has also invited Miss Madeline Bradford, Decatur, president of the Michigan Library Association.

The Carnegie Library plans a public bridge party Thursday, April 2, in the afternoon to raise funds for promotion of Library Week, April 12-18. There will be a lecture on bridge and then play, with assistance by the lecturer for persons who play.

Edison Sault Co. Cited On Safety

Edison Sault Electric Co. received a special safety award for the nearly 284,000 manhours worked in its system in 1963 without a disabling injury.

M. W. Pearson, Escanaba safety engineer for Employers Mutuals of Wausau, presented the safety plaque to A. V. Mennard, retired safety engineer for Edison Sault.

President Richard Y. Burnett of Edison Sault congratulated Menard and all employes of the system for the attitude toward safety that made the achievement possible.

Death Claims Mrs. Eliason

Mrs. Amanda Eliason, 79, of 1412 Stephenson Ave., died at her home at 5:30 p. m. Friday. She was a resident of Escanaba for the past 60 years.

Mrs. Eliason was born in Finland, Oct. 3, 1884 and her husband, Gustaf, preceded her in death on Jan. 4 of this year.

She was a member of the Morning Star Lodge, Evening Star Lodge and she worshipped at Central Methodist Church.

Survivors include: two sons, Edwin and Lloyd, Escanaba; four daughters, Mrs. Edith Bartreau, Mrs. Esther Johnson and Mrs. Melvin (Frances) Mornson, all of Escanaba and Mrs. Alex (Mildred) Empel, Lincoln Park, Mich.; 12 grandchildren and 6 great-grandchildren; four sisters, Mrs. Mary Lind, Detroit, Mrs. Gunnar Gustafson and Mrs. Eina Gustafson, Chicago and Mrs. Irene Flen, Iron Mountain.

Friends may call at the Anderson Funeral Home after 4 p. m. Sunday where complete funeral services will be conducted at 1:30 p. m. Monday with Rev. Robert Selberg officiating, assisted by Karl J. Hammar, pastor emeritus. Burial will be in Lakeview Cemetery.

Trawlermen Ask Bridge Opened

MENOMINEE — Ruleau Brothers, Robert and Louis, Cedar River fishermen, have served notice on Marinette Mayor Edward Woleske and Marinette Harbor Commission of a demand that the lower swing bridge be opened for Ruleau boats passing through the draw.

The notice, filed by Sawyer & Lundgren, attorneys for the Ruleaus, stated that unless the demand was complied with immediately, a formal complaint would be filed with the U.S. district attorney at Milwaukee.

Marinette is currently in charge of the operation of the bridge over the Menominee River under an arrangement between Menominee and Marinette alternating this responsibility. The arrangement is on a three-year cycle basis.

A Ruleau request was previously made to Mayor Woleske who stated it was being denied for economic reasons. Woleske noted that budgets of the two cities provided for operation of the bridge during navigation season between April 15 and Oct. 15.

The Ruleau trawler is now being unloaded at the Marathon dock downstream from the bridge and the Ruleaus want to transfer the unloading operations to the Angwall dock upstream.

Aleutian Island Volcano Erupts

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP) A major new volcanic eruption was reported late Friday on Unimak Island in the Aleutian chain, with a two-mile river of lava flowing from the mouth of the crater and debris hurled 2,000 feet into the air.

The lava flow and spewing debris was reported by a Coast Guard plane flying a low-level survey about five miles east of Westdahl peak, on Pogromni Volcano at the west end of Unimak.

Tags For 1965 To Add 'Winter'

LANSING (AP) — Michigan license plates, which since 1954 have carried the slogan "Water Wonderland", will have the word "Winter" added starting in 1965.

The new plates will read "Water-Winter Wonderland".

Announcement of the change was made jointly Friday by Gov. George W. Romney, who suggested the addition, and Secretary of State James Hare, who administers the state's licensing program.

They said the change is being made to honor Michigan's growing prominence as a winter sports and recreation area.

"We had to wait for a go-ahead from prison industries," Hare said. "The idea just got under the wire."

The license plates are manufactured at Southern Michigan Prison at Jackson

The original slogan was selected in 1954 by a panel of three judges in a contest promoted by then Secretary of State Owen Cleary.

Altar Society Plans Activities

GARDEN—The March Altar Society meeting of St. John's Church was held Tuesday evening in the parish hall. A short program on the true meaning and the religious significance of popular Easter customs was presented by the Spiritual Development Committee with the use of an attractive display as the background for their explanation of Easter practices. President, Mrs. William McDermott announced the annual Marquette Diocesan Council of Catholic Women Convention to be held at Ironwood April 18-19. She also listed women appointed as unit chairmen of Committees of the Council: Mrs. James Dotsch, Organization and Development; Mrs. LeRoy Winter, Libraries and Literature; Miss Fay Deloria, Cooperation with Confraternity of Christian Doctrine; Mrs. Lenard Joque, Cause of Bishop Baraga; Mrs. William Swaer, Catholic Truth; Mrs. Virgel Winter, Spiritual Development; Mrs. Alfred LaVallee, Public Relations;

Present officers, President, Mrs. William McDermott, Vice-President, Mrs. Paul Guertin, Secretary, Mrs. Alfred LaVallee, Treasurer, Mrs. LeRoy Winter will serve another year.

A card party was planned for April 5 with each Circle of the parish participating in the arrangements. Mrs. Ed LeMarbe donated hand sewn blocks and materials for the completion of a quilt. Members of the Society will work on it after meetings. Tentative plans were made for a parish celebration in June of the feast of St. John the Baptist, patron saint of the parish.

Mrs. Barney Jeffers will leave Saturday for her home in Aurora, Ill. after visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Beaudre and attending the funeral of her uncle, Edmond Martin.

Mr. and Mrs. Napoleon Dubey of Iron Mountain are visiting for several weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Beaudre. They were called here because of the death of Mrs. Dubey's brother Edmond Martin whose funeral was Wednesday.

Jake D. Gumper of Fort Wayne, Ind., is said to have bought the first gasoline pump manufactured in the U. S. in 1885.

Farms Decline; Milk Income Up

Income per average 7 day week of Upper Peninsula dairy farmers rose from $144.86 in February 1963 to $161.33 in February of this year the U. S. Department of Agriculture reports.

There was also a very slight rise in the average (blend) price of milk from $3.748 to $3.789 and in the Class I (drinking) price of milk in Zone I which includes Escanaba and Iron Mountain, from $3.870 to $3.880 per hundredweight. The price of milk for manufacturing rose from $3.10 to $3.16.

Production in the month rose from 9.2 million a year ago to 9.5 million pounds with increased percentage (75.4) in Class I.

Daily average production was up from 331,849 pounds to 329,889 as the total number of producers slipped from 622 to 560 and the number of tank producers rose from 270 to 362 as the number of can producers dropped from 352 to 198. Milk income for the month rose from $360,410 to $374,295.

The report shows Upper Peninsula dairy farming growing in production and income despite loss of its marginal farms.

Michigan Slips In Military Contract Work

Michigan's net value of military procurement actions for fiscal year 1963 totaled $633 million or 2.5 per cent of the $28 billion spent nationally by the Department of Defense.

Despite this volume of prime contracts received by Michigan firms during 1963 the Michigan total is down $44 million from 1962 procurements of $677 million. Nationally, military buying increased in 1963 by $300 million.

States ahead of Michigan in military buying were California, New York, Ohio, New Jersey, Texas, Massachusetts, Connecticut, Washington, Pennsylvania and Missouri.

Peninsula Potpourri

MARQUETTE — The Rev. James R. Balfour of Port Huron will replace the Rev. Ivan O. Gonser of Marquette as superintendent of the Marquette District of the Methodist Church, which comprises the entire Upper Peninsula.

Dr. Gonser is completing his sixth year here as superintendent, and Methodist regulations call for a superintendent returning to a local church.

Hence he is due for a local pastorate, the announcement to be made in June, when Rev. Balfour succeeds him.

Cream And Dollars

If someone proposed to bring into the Upper Peninsula an industry which would start $12.5 million in circulation here every year and employ thousands, we'd get pretty excited about it.

That's the stake in the Upper Peninsula's dairy industry. The money comes mostly from the milk and cream and butterfat produced by our dairy farmers, with a smaller amount from the sale of dairy cattle.

This industry has been going through the wringer, like so many other businesses in America. It's under enormous change. The best dairy farmers are making increased investments in their establishments to survive and taking smaller returns from their investments. They're working for long range goals.

The Grade A milk producers have seen their income drop 25 per cent in 10 years. The poor producers have gone out of business—hundreds of them. Some sold their farms to their more progressive neighbors.

* * *

In the last 15 years the U.S. farm population has dropped over 4 million and almost 1.5 million farms have been abandoned or merged with bigger operations. This national trend has been evident in the Upper Peninsula.

Even a short look ahead shows where the farm economy is trending. By the mid-1960s another 400,000 U.S. farms will have locked the barn forever. That will leave about 3.3 million individual farms and hundreds of thousands of these will be gobbled up or extinguished.

This makes a huge problem for the people who live on the farms that are going out of business and it makes a huge problem for the communities which draw so much of their economic support from farming. What's needed by the public at present is an understanding of what's going on so it will not lose sight of the huge importance of our Upper Peninsula agriculture and of the necessity of helping it through this period of change so that it will emerge strong and productive and still a major element of our economy.

* * *

Jack Little, director of the U.P. Farm Experiment Station at Chatham and U.P. Extension dairyman, puts our dairy situation in focus. He points out that our dairy farming, despite the great loss of farms in the past several decades and reduction in the number of milk cows by one third in the past 10 years, is producing as much milk as formerly.

To have saved the Upper Peninsula's volume of milk production despite loss of one third of our cows is a great achievement in adaptability. Little and his colleagues of the Michigan State University Extension Service and our dairy industry have collaborated in an economic triumph.

Having done so much, Little points to all that remains to be done. There'll be more cows going to slaughter and more farms closing, he says, unless dairymen go modern. When there are only 13 per cent of our dairy cows enrolled in production testing programs, he says, we're 87 per cent old fashioned. What businessman, he asks would try to operate without keeping books? And yet that's what a farmer does when he doesn't keep records on the production of his herd and cull out the poor producers.

* * *

The average cow in Michigan is producing 8,000 pounds of milk a year. That's better than the national average of 7,454 pounds. But before you feel good about Michigan's position, note that a Michigan cow has produced as much as 40,000 pounds of milk in a year. Measured against pile run practice Michigan is doing fairly well, but measured against what's possible, it's not doing well at all.

This is the real goal of dairying in the Upper Peninsula, the conversion of its lush northern grasses and pure grains into great rivers of high quality milk. Nature has provided bountifully. The need is to broaden the Peninsula's dairy farming base of operators who keep herd records and use them in good managment.

There's going to be dairy industry in America. The only question is what the Upper Peninsula's share of it will be. Here's a big industry that insists on farms getting better or going broke.

Finding The Way

Reality Beyond Ashes

By RALPH W. LOEW, D. D.

The tourist in Rome or Athens is impressed by the majestic columns, fragments enormous buildings, which indicate a glory that has passed. One can imagine the Forum, the ancient theater or the many-columned temple.

This summer we found a little book in Rome which combined the present and the past. On one page the present ruins were portrayed while on the opposite page, printed on a plastic material, was the picture of the original. By placing the overleaf page on the picture of the present ruins, one could see how the remnants are the suggestion of the original glory.

It is this overleaf which is missing from so many of our situations. We look at the wreckage of a man, view the ruin of some dream of society or see some fellow with his reputation ruined, and we write it all off as failure.

We dismiss the question of the Psalmist concerning mankind, "What is man that thou are mindful of him — Thou hast made him a little lower than the angels!"

What we need to see in the life of Christ is this overleaf, this awareness that man is meant to be more. Mankind is worth loving, worth dying for, and that's the overleaf which is put on the ruins as you look at a Cross.

On the campus of a nearby university there are some columns, the remnants of a building which once stood in our central city. No one knows what to do with them. No one has come up with the proper blueprint or the financial subsidy. So the ruins remain.

There are the similar ruins among ethnic, racial or cultural groups of the city where so many have failed to catch the dream of the blueprint or have failed to actually try to build the structure. So people are prejudged, and the blueprints are missing.

In the present discussions which go on in all of our countries, ranging from human freedom to housing, there's too much prejudging. The present fact is accepted rigidly as though nothing could ever be done about it. With this narrowed judgement, a man can go his way and see no need to try to do anything about the human situation. Wrote T. S. Eliot, noting this sense of guilt.

"It's not the feeling of anything I've ever done, which I might get away from, or anything in me I could get rid of — but of emptiness, or failure, towards someone, or something, outside of myself; And I feel I must . . . atone — is that the word?"

That's the word and it puts the overleaf above the ruins we contrive. That's why these days demand that we keep in communication the fact that man is made in the image of God. God so loved the world — that's "overleaf" enough to keep us working at the ruins — our own, as well as our neighbor's.

LEARNED THEIR PART

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Mrs Alex Alpers took no chances before leaving for a tour of Israel.

Each day for two weeks before the trip, she watched critically from the next room while her husband and two young daughters went through the routine of preparing breakfast and tidying up the apartment.

"I wanted to make sure they would know what to do while I was gone," she said.

"I've Got Him Eating Right Out of My Hand!"

Washington Comment

By BRUCE BIOSSAT

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — Many Republican party leaders might be acutely embarrassed if New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller were to surprise them and win some major victories on the presidential primary circuit.

Some of these men have been saying "anybody but Rockefeller" for nearly a year now. They are almost totally unprepared for the idea that he might somehow re-emerge as a serious prospect for the nomination.

★ ★ ★

Most of them seem to be betting that they will never have to suffer this embarrassment.

Yet some of these same politicians argue that Arizona Sen. Barry Goldwater could take a spill in the big primaries. And in California, most significant of all, a Goldwater defeat can only mean a Rockefeller triumph.

Obviously there is a strange gap here in many leaders' thinking. They talk increasingly of the chance Goldwater may fail in the late-season primary tests. They seldom discuss what may happen to Rockefeller should he prove the agent of Goldwater failure.

But if he were to capture California and perhaps Oregon the governor would largely erase fears that his remarriage is a grave political handicap. He would also destroy this issue as a cloak for other kinds of hostility toward him and his views.

★ ★ ★

Victory in the June 2 California primary would give Rockefeller 86 delegate votes. On that same day he will get all or most of his own state's 92 votes. His maximum pickup could be 178—of 655 needed to nominate—just 41 days before the opening convention gavel at San Francisco.

Should Oregon's 18 votes and a likely 12 from friendly Vermont be tossed into his bag, the governor then would have a bedrock 208—nearly one-third of a winning total. This assumes no pickup at all from any other quarter.

Four days after the California voting, four state conventions will choose delegates. In two, Colorado (18 votes), and Hawaii (8), a fluid situation seems to exist.

Five days after California, the Governors Conference mets in Cleveland, Ohio. A triumphant Rockefeller would be a chief target of attention on a national stage.

The second weekend after California, seven states will choose delegates in convention. Again, politicians will be on the lookout for the main trend, in places like Connecticut, Minnesota, Washington.

The key signal from the western primaries will register also on hundreds of already chosen but largely uncommitted delegates in Massachusetts (34), New Jersey (40), Michigan (48), Ohio (58), and other states.

★ ★ ★

The question is simple—

Could a Rockefeller fresh from victory in California and Oregon, strutting the Governors Conference stage in Cleveland, be ignored by Republican leaders in the decision-making days from June 2 to July 13?

Far from having ready answers, most of these men indicate—in telephone interviews drawn from across the country—that they have not even framed the question in their minds.

A Rockefeller success at the primary polls is the one eventuality they seem determined not to confront until and unless they must.

Ask The Dentist

TEETH AND BODY PAINS

By DR. STEPHEN SHEFFREY
And The Michigan State Dental Association

Q—My shoulders and back have been aching lately. Is there any truth in the saying that bad teeth can cause aches in different parts of the body?

A—The association between "bad teeth" and aches or ailments elsewhere in the body is not as common as one might think, but it does exist. Maladies, such as blisters on the hands and blood in the urine, have been traced to diseased teeth and gums by competent observers.

In these cases, the unhealthy condition of the teeth or gums was quite obvious, indicating that the teeth had needed extraction for months. Body ailments have never been traced to healthy teeth or gums.

Probably every dentist has had patients report that a backache or joint pain disappeared after a tooth extraction. Authorities, however, can't conclude that all such reports are meaningful. Maybe the backache was due to subside anyway. Maybe the report was "just conversation," or an optimistic outlook, or the practice of "positive" psychology.

Consider also that tooth extractions may mobilize the body's defense and healing potential to an extent that minor joint aches might be relieved for a time as a sort of by-product of the main job of repairing the jaw.

So, instead of having a tooth removed, if a person with a minor joint ache should drop a boulder on his toe, the joint ache might disappear due to the generalized body response to an important repair job on the toe. (Test this theory at your own risk.)

In Germany, a long-term observation was made of a group of persons who had sacrificed all their teeth in the hopes of feeling better. The conclusion there was that most individuals in the group were no better off —just toothless.

Teeth should be removed, of course, when they or the gums are hopelessly diseased, but it's not wise to give up the ones your dentist advises saving.

Neither should a person let his teeth and gums deteriorate and then hope to avoid the aches and ailments of middle age with mass extractions. The odds are against it.

'DOUBLE' TOOTH

Q—My daughter has a front baby tooth that is double like Siamese twins. Will her permanent tooth come in that way too?

A—Usually not. A boy we know had a twin baby eye tooth, but the permanent tooth is normal. As it turned out, the twin tooth was a good thing, because it provided some needed space in that area and helped to prevent crowding of the permanent teeth. Occasionally, however, an unusual baby tooth will be replaced by an unusual permanent tooth. Generally the dentist will check the unerupted tooth by X-ray to determine in advance what to expect.

THE UNKNOWN SPECIALIST

Most people have never heard of the periodontist. When you first hear his professional name you might think he's some sort of instrumentalist in a big orchestra. Dentists regularly recommend his service to some of their patients . . . but only a few go to him. In many cases this specialist could set back the date a person would need dentures by 10 or 20 years.

The periodontist works primarily around the tooth, not on it. You might compare him with a landscape architect because he trims and contours the gums to correct or avoid "sink holes" and poor drainage areas around tooth foundations.

But he does more: He improves the bite so that teeth take the chewing load evenly—a vitally important job on patients with poor bone support for the teeth.

He might even construct a special tooth cap or crown with little bulge on it in the right spot to protect an exposed edge of gum irritated by foods during chewing.

Or he might splint two or more weak teeth together so their roots can help support each other, whereas if left alone they would loosen and need extraction.

Consider the person with a mouthful of sore, swollen gums. Should he have his teeth removed and wear dentures? Or should he see a periodontist?

One man who saw a periodontist gives us his opinion: "I look at it this way — the periodontist said I could keep my own teeth for 10 years or more if I stay on the ball and keep 'em clean, porticularly in between the teeth after each meal. Ten years is about as long as they say a first set of false teeth will last, on the average, so the cost is about the same either way. But this way I have my own teeth. I only wish I'd started taking care of them sooner."

Ann Landers

Wise Brenda Up About Her Looks

Dear Ann Landers: I am a 15-year-old girl who needs your help. A family moved to this neighborhood about three weeks ago. They have a daughter my age. I will call her Brenda.

My mother says Brenda looks like a tramp. I agree that my mother is part-way right. Brenda wears a monster hair-do and piles on the make up. But this is just poor taste and has nothing to do with her morals. Brenda is actually one of the nicest girls I have ever known.

If mother got to know Brenda better she would like her. Don't you think it is unfair of my mother to judge my friend from her outward appearance? —DEFENDER

Dear Defender: They say "You can't judge a book by it's cover" and it's true, because some covers are misleading. But a cheap or shoddy cover on a good book is indefensible and stupid.

If you want to do Brenda a real favor, wise her up.

* * *

Dear Ann Landers: My husband pays income taxes hand over fist. He has no interest in anyone except himself, and no interest in anything but making money. I used to have guests over but he humiliated me by yawning in their faces and dozing when they spoke.

One night I, invited three couples for dinner. At 10:30 P. M. he announced, "I'm tired. Good night." He turned out the lights and left us sitting in the dark. That was in 1957 and I have not asked anyone over since.

I've always wanted to travel and there is no reason why we shouldn't see the world and enjoy ourselves. We get as far as the brochures. He nods and lets me think he is serious. When it comes to buying the tickets he gives me ten reasons why he can't leave town.

Is it fair that I should be getting so little out of life just because my husband is a driven, money-mad, stick-in-the-mud?—MRS. BLAH

Dear Mrs. Blah: No, it isn't, and you are a fool if you let him get away with it.

Plan a trip and buy the tickets yourself. Tell him if he will not go you will invite (as your guest) a woman friend or a relative in his place. (It would be lovely if you chose someone who could not afford a trip.) Then do it and send me a post card.

Dear Ann Landers: What do you think of people who call on the telephone and start the conversation like this: "Well, it's about time. I've been trying to get your line for over an hour." Or—"My but you have a busy telephone. This is the fifth time I've tried to reach you and your line has been tied up."

I always get the uncomfortable feeling that I must tell the caller to whom I have been speaking. When I give out the information I become annoyed with myself. After all, it's really nobody's business and I shouldn't have to make any apologies. My irritation is reflected in the tone of voice I use throughout the conversation and this makes me mad, too.

Please deal with this problem in the column. I am sure others are plagued, too.—A. K. W.

Dear A. K. W.: A busy signal can be frustrating and even maddening after a while But the mature person copes with the frustration and doesn't get ugly with his friends.

Keep this simple answer by the phone and use when needed: "Yes, I certainly am long-winded. I guess I have no terminal facility. Beyond hope, you might say."

They'll Do It Every Time — By Jimmy Hatlo

Scrubbing Will Brighten Siding

AP Newsfeatures

A garden hose sometimes can be an effective substitute for a paint brush in giving a fresh look to a house with wood siding.

Wood that appears to need painting often needs nothing more than a cleaning. The quickest and easiest way to accomplish this is by rinsing the siding with water from a hose Aside from the cleansing action of the water, the pressure from the hose helps to push the dirt from the wood. Must you be warned to doublecheck every window to be certain it is tightly closed?

Dirt of a more stubborn nature may require a gentle washing with a cloth and warm water. If necessary, soap suds or one of the mild detergents or scouring powders can be used. In all cases, the rubbing action should be done with a fairly light touch. A final rinsing with clear water should be given if a soap, detergent or powder is used.

When ordinary dirt is not the culprit, other measures must be taken. Take the case of a common stain on wood siding: that caused by the use of nails that are not resistant to corrosion. The rust-like coloring of these stains will not come off so easily. The area must be washed with a solution of four ounces of oxalic acid crystals to one gallon water. This calls for careful handling and the use of rubber gloves. A rinsing with cold water is essential. The only way to be certain that stains do not reappear is to remove the nails and replace them with those which resist corrosion.

Mildew is a problem in some areas of the country. When it has occurred only a little, scrubbing with a brush may be sufficient to remove it. Scouring powder can be added for more stubborn cases. But a household cleaner which contains either sodium hypochlorite or trisodium phosphate is the best bet. Here again, this does not insure against a return of the condition. The prevention of mildew involves the elimination of whatever is causing persistent dampness and the application of a mildew-proof paint to the troubled area.

When pitch or resin moves through paint and causes staining, scouring powder should be tried first, but only light pressure should be used in the rubbing. Denatured alcohol also is effective. Excessive moisture in back of the siding is usually responsible for this condition.

SANTA FE TRAIL

The Sante Fe Trail was about 780 miles long. The road ran from Independence, Mo., to Santa Fe, N.M. There was a short cut, called the Cimarron Cutoff, but the longer way was much safer.

House of the Week

Old English Flavor Added

OLD ENGLISH FLAVOR: A massive stone chimney, bay window which has the suggestion of a lower turret, timber posts, leaded glass sidelights, shuttered windows and rugged siding give this house a distinctively comfortable look. It contains three bedrooms, with attic expansion space for two more.

All that's needed to complete the atmosphere of rugged warmth which surrounds this charming cottage is a wooded lot in a quiet neighborhood.

Probably the best word to describe the house is "comfortable"—and this house is all the more comfortable because its Old English flavor is imposed upon an up-to-date floor plan which boasts all the efficiency and convenience of modern living.

It's massive stone chimney with chimney pots, bay window which has the suggestion of a lower turret, timber posts at the entry, leaded glass sidelights flanking the door, shuttered windows surrounded by hand split shakes, and rough cut siding above the porch, all combine to give the home its distinctive personality.

The theme is carried through on the inside. A 10' by 12' foyer features a flagstone floor and a slanted beam ceiling which soars up to a sunken balcony at the head of the stair.

Architect Rudolph A. Matern designed the house as H-20 in the House of the Week series.

It contains three bedrooms and two full baths in a basic area of 1,669 square feet. However, there is expansion room upstairs for two more large bedrooms and a glamorous third bath.

The best thing about this sort of expansion is that it is built in; that is, adding an extra room (or, in this case, two extra rooms, as needed) doesn't require any structural changes. As a matter of fact, many husbands probably could do the finish work themselves.

The front stone chimney wall extends slightly beyond the side of the house and shields a private covered porch which could be screened if desired. Matern added a nice touch to the porch with a circular window in front which can be left open or perhaps fitted with leaded panes.

Additional Details

A nice thing about this style of decor is that it is attractive as well as easy to keep up. The flagstone foyer, for example, is plainly practical and also in keeping with the rugged flavor of the home. Similarly, wood paneling and wainscoting is designated for certain walls, especially those which get the most wear.

The housekeeping area is a model of 20th century efficiency in its Old English setting.

A bay window with a planter inside faces the kitchen sink, offering excellent supervision of the backyard besides its obvious esthetic benefit. Another up-to-the-minute feature of the kitchen is a built-in breakfast seat.

Adjoining the kitchen is a laundry-mud room ideally situated at the rear service entry.

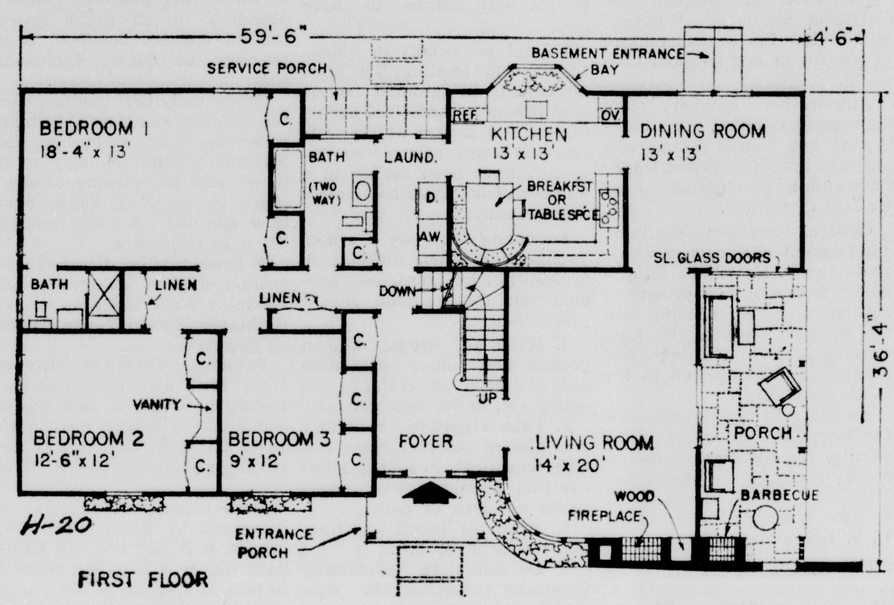
The living room and dining room offer an ensemble rich in cozy comfort, but at the same time expansive enough for formal entertaining. Both rooms open to the 21-foot covered porch, which serves to join them and extend the function of both rooms. Note the built-in barbecue on the porch, using the same chimney as the living room fireplace.

The three downstairs bedrooms are all nicely sized and all have copius closet space—at least two in each room. There also are two linen closets in the hall.

The family bathroom has two doors so it can be used conveniently during daylight hours from the kitchen area and from the backyard. The second downstairs bath adjoins the master bedroom, and is complete with a stall shower which has a seat.

Upstairs, there is no worry about closet space whatsoever. One of the nicest features of the expansion area is the balcony porch in the dormer with access from both bedrooms and the luxurious bathroom.

All in all, it is a house which should appeal to those with an appreciation of old fashioned warmth, especially when it can be adapted to contemporary living needs.



FLOOR PLANS: The basic living area is 1,669 square feet. Expansion in attic adds 758 square feet for two future bedrooms and bath. Note the abundance of closets throughout the house. There is a full basement which can be developed as the owner sees fit.

H-20 STATISTICS

A 1½-story home containing three bedrooms, two full baths, living room, dining room, kitchen, foyer, laundry and covered porch on main floor; full basement; attic expansion for two more bedrooms and third bath. Basic area is 1,669 square feet; attic expansion adds 758 square feet.

RUGGED WARMTH: The Old English theme is carried inside through this 10' by 12' foyer which has a flagstone floor and a slanted beam ceiling soaring upward to the sunken balcony at the head of the stair.

Select Wisely For Attic Job

AP Newsfeatures

Whether he does the work himself or hires a contractor, the home owner who finishes an expansion attic is wise to acquaint himself with the many varieties of wall, ceiling and floor materials on the market.

The size of the available budget naturally will play some part in the decisions that are made, just as it does in the purchase of a house, an automobile or virtually anything else. But it is unwise to select a material that may be just a little cheeper when it is something else which really strikes your fancy. An outlay of $20 or $30 extra on the over-all job may seem of consequence at the moment, but spread out over the years the area will be in use, it is a wise investment in personal satisfaction.

It is surprising how many times someone assumes that a certain product is outside of his financial reach, only to discover when it is too late that the difference between it and what he actually bought is very little. The solution? Shop around, look over the many materials and compare the prices. If this sounds fundamental, bear in mind that many persons contemplating the finishing of the attic decide too quickly which materials to use, later expressing the opinion that they would have made different decisions if they had only known.

The variations on the traditional wall, ceiling and floor materials are almost endless. Take such a widely used product as hardboard, for instance. In its common state, it is a brown, hard-surfaced, grainless board — and that's what we think of when somebody mentions it. But we counted 17 varieties of it in a single well-stocked lumber yard recently, and we have no doubt there are many more. Wood paneling not only comes in many different species of wood, finished and unfinished, but with many different joint techniques. Plywood facings are many and varied. Gypsum board can be bought in wood-grained or any one of a dozen other finishes. No matter what your intended decor, you can get harmonizing ceiling tiles. And on and on.

Want to be as satisfied with your newly finished attic five years from now as you are during the first few months? Then select wisely — after you have seen what is available.

Teachers Began Fight In '20s

By KEN SINER

LANSING (AP) — Thousands of teachers whose jobs will be more secure because of Thursday's legislative action were not yet born when the fight for teacher tenure began in Michigan.

"It started in the late '20's," says Dr. E. Dale Kennedy, who for the past six years has led the struggle as executive head of the Michigan Education Association.

The struggle ended in unqualified victory Thursday when the Mea's initatory petitions, bearing 325,000 signatures, were enacted into law, giving tenure to all teachers with two years' seniority.

Tenure is a form of job security. After a teacher has served for two years, he can't be fired unless his incapability is proven and he then has right of appeal.

"'the first time the tenure question hit the legislature was in 1936," recalls the 63-year-old MEA executive secretary. "But nothing happened.

"Then in the 1937 special session we had to settle for half a loaf—we had to choose between getting local-option tenure or insisting on a statewide Law. There wasn't a possibility of the mandatory type passing, so we settled for the other."

For more than a quarter-century, local voters were confronted with tenure referendums.

Tenure fared better in urban districts.

By last June, about one-third of Michigan's 80,000 public school teachers were covered by tenure, but few of these taught in rural schools.

Kennedy, white-haired veteran teacher, principal and superintendent, defines tenure:

"Tenure is a method for improvement of education for boys and girls in Michigan through careful selection, evaluation and dismissal of personnel when they cease to render completely efficient service."

"It puts an end to political firings of qualified teachers and quiets the fears of some classroom teachers that they are at the mercy of the caprice of temperamental superiors."

Ford Co. Sales Top Chevrolet

DETROIT (AP) — Ford Division of Ford Motor Co. sold 62,880 cars and trucks during the first 10 days of March, setting records for the period and outselling Chevrolet for the first time in months.

Ford's lead of 241 over Chevrolet's 62,639 total vehicles was attributed partially to a sales contest which ended in the 10-day period. Ford last topped Chevrolet in mid-September, 1963, when it led by 370 units.

Ford's preliminary figures indicated sales of 50,294 cars and 12,586 trucks, records for the March 1-10 period. Chevrolet sold 51,361 cars and 11,278 trucks, with the total running approximately 700 below the same period last year.

Also reporting records for the period were Pontiac, with 20,081 sales — up 32 per cent from a year ago — and Cadillac, with a total of 4,489—up 9 per cent over last year. It was Pontiac's 16th consecutive sales record.

Oldsmobile said its sales of 13,248 were 20 per cent higher than a year ago and Buick reported sales of 13,147—up 25.5 per cent and the highest for the period since 1956.

A 33 per cent increase over last year was reported by Chrysler Corp. with sales of 25,661. Dodge sales totaled 11,060, a boost of 53 per cent, while Chrysler-Plymouth totaled 14,601, for an increase of 22 per cent.

American Motors said Rambler sales for the period averaged 1,201 a day, breaking a mark set in 1962 and boosting sales by 19.5 per cent over last year.

Ward's Automotive Reports placed the 1964 vehicle total of U.S. auto makers by the week's end at 2,080,624, or more than 150,000 units above the total of a year ago.

The statistical firm said output since Jan. 1 is 7.7 per cent higher than in 1863.

Mary Dowling To Call Ireland With St. Patrick's Day Greetings

By AMY B. MOBERG

As Irish as the House of Ludington and its proprietor and master chef, Pat Hayes, on St. Patrick's Day, is Miss Mary Dowling, whose duties as dining room hostess and assistant supervisor of meals and foods, make her an important member of the hostel's staff.

Mary was born in Ireland — most members of her family still live there— and, come Sunday, March 15, she will have a trans-Atlantic telephone reunion visit with them in celebration of the day.

Her birthplace is Township of Listrahee, County of Longford, which is about 60 miles from Dublin. Her birth date is May 17, 1905, her parents, now gone to their reward, were George Dowling and Mary Ann Brady Dowling. She attended elementary classes in a one-room school and later entered a Covent Day School for a business course.

Then, with many others who were leaving for the land of unbounded opportunity, she sailed from Dublin for the United States. She arrived July 4, 1928, and went at once to Chicago to make her home with an uncle, Thomas Brady, himself a native of the Emerald Isle.

Her first position there was receptionist in a doctor's office. "The good man was an Irishman, too," Mary commented. "I think that is why he hired me." She began her career in hotel work as a desk clerk and switch board operator.

Since 1940

She came to Escanaba to become associated with the House of Ludington in 1940. Today she assists wherever she is needed, but her special fields are taking care of tourist reservations which come in months in advance, arranging for the comfort of the vacationers, and supervising wedding breakfasts and receptions, bridge luncheons, in fact special parties of all kinds.

But, back to Ireland.

Mary has two brothers, Joseph and John Dowling, a sister, Mrs. John (Annie) Cahill, and a sister-in-law, Mrs. Bernard Dowling, residing in Township of Listrahee, the latter in the old family home. A sister, Mrs. Theresa McParlane, a half brother, Patrick Joseph Connor, and a half sister, Eileen Connor, are in England. Mary recently found out her nephew is attending the University of Dublin on a scholarship.

"Home was just off the main road leading to the County Town of Longford, she recalled, a bit wistfully. "It was a heavily wooded area with the branches of the large chestnut trees hanging over the road, full of blossoms in the spring. The fields were hedged with hawthorne and in their early bloom they were called May Bush. The white flowers were very fragrant, especially after a light shower — much like our trailing arbutus here.

"The shamrock as we know it in Ireland grows like a trailing vine under the grass. My sister sends me a shamrock bouquet every St. Patrick's Day," she added.

She told of some of her mother's favorite dishes, Irish stew, a layer of potatoes, a layer of steak, a layer of onions, packed to the brim of what we know as a Dutch oven, and cooked in an open hearth over coals of logs and peat. And "Colcannon," potatoes with fresh butter and chopped scallions, is piled in heaping mounds on plates.

Mary Dowling

No Celebration

Contrasting the observance of St. Patrick's Day in her home community with the big celebrations here, Mary observed that there it was strictly a religious holiday, all taverns closed and there was not even a small semblance of a Fifth Avenue parade.

But let it not be said that there won't be feasting aplenty at "House o' Ludington," come the 17th of March with corn beef and cabbage, salmon steaks, Irish stew with dumplings, Limerick ham, Blarney cheese, colcannon and Irish soda bread among the traditional dishes. Decorations will proclaim the "Wearing o' the Green" and favors will include clay pipes and Irish tobacco, which this year will probably interest the ladies as well as the gentlemen.

Mary Dowling has not been back to Ireland since she left Dublin, but she and a sister in this country, Mrs. Brigid Callender, a widow and assistant manager of an Oak Park, Ill., hotel, are planning a trip home as soon as the Callender son is through school.

She closed a pleasant afternoon visit of two Irishmen with a provocative thought. "You know," she said, "the older people of the Irish race, in their ordinary conversation, are always glorifying or thanking God . . . 'Glory to God,' 'Thanks be to God,' 'God willing,' 'Praise be to God' . . . Maybe that is why we often hear the expression, 'God loves the Irish.' "

Newcomers Club Regular Meeting On Tuesday

The regular monthly meeting of the Escanaba Welcome Wagon Newcomers Club will be held Tuesday, March 17 at 8 p. m. in St. Stephen's Guild Hall.

Speaker for the evening will be Mrs. Milton Embs from the Retarded Children's Association.

Mrs. Wayne St. Pierre will be in charge of the handicraft group which will decorate eggs for Easter. Those interested should bring blown eggs to decorate.

Cards will be played and prizes awarded. Mrs. Earl Uecke is the March hostess chairman.

Plans for the fashion show are complete and it has been requested that any outstanding tickets or money be turned over to Mrs. John Bell by Monday.

Women's Club To Meet Wednesday

The Escanaba Women's Club will hold their regular monthly meeting on Wednesday, March 18 at the Chamber of Commerce Building at 2 p. m.

The program, entitled "Touring France" will feature Jean Cote, French teacher at Escanaba Area High School, who will show a film and present the French folk dancers in costume from the high school. The program was arranged by Mrs. O. W. Brookes.

Hostesses for the afternoon include: Mrs. George Bonefeld, chairman, Mesdames Robert Storbeck, Thomas Newport, J. E. Turner, Paul Richter, Sherwood C. Trotter and William E. Taylor.

Poison Control Urged To Protect Children In Home

A bottle of gaily-colored capsules left within easy reach of an inquisitive toddler; a can of turpentine on a low shelf in the garage; some plant food stored in an empty peanut butter jar . . .

Each could prove deadlier than a bullet.

The week of March 15 has been chosen as National Poison Prevention Week to remind parents that the most common household items are responsible for the majority of accidental poisonings.

Dr. George Lowrey, head of the Poison Control Center at the University of Michigan Medical Center, says once a child has tasted a poisonous substance, rapid treatment may be the only chance to save him.

To aid physicians in identifying and treating the toxic ingredients in common household products, medicinal agents plants, and a host of miscellaneous items, poison control centers have been set up in a number of hospitals and health departments.

Educating the pre - school youngster is often difficult to accomplish, he notes, but parents can follow some simple precautions:

1. Keep all drugs, known poisons and other chemicals out of reach of children or, better yet, under lock and key.
2. Take a periodic inventory and discard old medicines and other chemicals in such a manner that they cannot be reached by children or pets.
3. Read all labels carefully and follow directions.
4. Do not store potentially poisonous substances in food or beverage containers.
5. Give medications only under the direction of a doctor.
6. When using cleaning fluids, be sure there is adequate ventilation.
7. When using pesticides, be careful not to contaminate food. Avoid inhaling or excessive contact on the skin.
8. Instruct children not to eat any type of plant or other vegetation inside or outside of the home without first obtaining adult approval.
9. If there is an possibility that a child may have been exposed to a poisonous substance, keep the container and its label and call your doctor immediately.

Good Big Team To Face Tough Small Ball Club

By RAY CRANDALL
(Sports Editor)

MARQUETTE — How will a good small team fare against a good big team?

That basketball question will be answered here tonight when defending champion Rudyard faces the Ishpeming Hematites for the Upper Peninsula Class B championship at the Northern Michigan University fieldhouse.

Ishpeming earned the right to face the Bulldogs by bombarding Stephenson 83-57 in the semifinals Friday night. Rudyard sailed past an outclassed Stambaugh team 62-42.

Coach Duane Phillips does not have a six-footer in his starting lineup. In fact, he has only one player of that height on his entire squad.

On the other hand, Coach Bill Howes of Rudyard is loaded with height. Within a fraction of an inch, all of his starters are in the six-foot class.

Both teams were impressive in their victories last night. Ishpeming put on a fabulous performance to sideline Coach Guss Lord's scrappy Stephenson quint.

The Hematites hit a torrid 56 per cent of their shots from the field, scoring on 33 of 59 attempts. They added 17 of 22 opportunities from the free throw line.

There was no way the Eagles could halt the Ishpeming sharpshooters as first one Hematite and then another would rattle off a string of field goals. Four of them finished in double scoring figures, paced by Les Coduti with 22 points. Doug Perttunen added 20, John Peterson 18, James Olson12 and Bruce Swanson was close behind with nine.

The Eagles, who forged a highly successful season after a sluggish start, trailed by as much as 11 points in the second period but made a bid early in the third and cut their deficit to four points at 41-37.

But Ishpeming outscored Stephenson 36 to 10 in the following 10 minutes to put the game out of reach, leading 77-47.

Dave Bush, a slender sophomore, led the Stephenson attack with 19 points.

Rudyard had too much of everything for the Hilltoppers who had only 6 foot 5 inch Torger Omdahl. The Bulldogs warmed up with a 13-10 lead in the first quarter and spread the gap to 30-19 at halftime.

Stambaugh fell behind by 20 points in the third period and was never able to recover.

Rudyard had four players in double figures with Rick Crews hitting 18, Joel Ploegstra 16, Al Morehouse 12 and Ron Hintz 10.

Omdahl was the lone Stambaugh player in double digits with 14.

The victory was Rudyard's 17th in 19 starts. Ishpeming will carry a 13-6 record into tonight's title tilt.

Few Upsets In Michigan High School Tournaments

By BERNIE KENNEDY
Associated Press Sports Writer

This year's Michigan high school basketball tournament could well go down as one of the most uneventful in recent history.

The second week of the annual three-week grind ends today with 28 regional championship games at 21 sites around the state.

Few unheralded clubs have been able to score upsets in the tough competition and 28 of the teams rated among the 10 best in their respective classes are still in the running.

Three regional champions were crowned Friday. Detroit Friday. Detroit Northern, tenth-ranked in Class A, downed Redford St. Mary 71-42 at Ferndale; Warren moved in as Northern's quarter-final opponent by edging St. Clair Shores Lake Shore 65-56 and Suttons Bay took the Class D title at Traverse City by upending Leland 64-61.

Seventh-ranked Grand Rapids South trimmed eighth-rated Muskegon Heights 70-59 and Marquette Graveraet clobbered Grand Rapids Central 100-82, as Bruce Forstrom scored 39 points, in other Class A games.

Defending Class B champion River Rouge, top-rated in the class, had no trouble with eighth-ranked Detroit Holy Redeemer, 78-46; seventh-ranked Flint St. Michael beat fourth-ranked Sandusky 70-66 in overtime; sixth-ranked Allegan eliminated Buchanan 66-48 and 10th-ranked Saginaw Buena Vista edged Swartz Creek 56-52, in others.

Second-ranked Galien clipped Middleville 93-72, fifth-ranked Addison stopped Summerfield 94-62, sixth-ranked Wakefield thumped Sault Ste. Marie Loretto 63-47 and Montrose upset fourth-rated Akron-Fairgrove 83-73 in Class D.

Mackinaw City defeated Rose City 63-43 and Pickford stoned Eben 70-47 in the only other Class D games on the schedule.

Houghton Victorious

In one of the closest games of the night, Houghton was extended to three overtimes before scoring a 53-51 victory over Crystal Falls in a Class C game. The winning points were two free throws by John Krenitsky. Jon Fryxell had 26 points for the winners.

Suttons Bay and Warren each avenged twin defeats during the regular season with their triumphs Friday. Suttons Bay's victory snapped a 20-game winning streak for Leland, while Warren's only losses so far this year were at the hands of Lake Shore.

Five men scored in double figures for River Rouge, which is seeking its seventh state title in the last 11 years.

Ron Bayes scored 30 points in Addison's victory, but Summerfield's Lynn Fisher took scoring honors with 33.

Wakefield connected on 31 of 43 free throw attempts, 19 of them in the last quarter, in sweeping past Sault Loretto.

Dave Thiel hit for 37 points and teammate Miles Taylor added 29 in Montrose's upset of Akron - Fairgrove. Montrose forged ahead in the last three minutes when A-F started to miss its free shots and also lost its touch from the floor.

At least six regional championship games were to be played this afternoon, with the remaining scheduled for tonight.

Quarter-final pairings already have been made, but sites will not be announced until Monday.

Winners of Wednesday's game advance to the semifinals Friday night at various sites in the Lansing area.

Underdog Cotton Beats Persol In 4th Round TKO

NEW YORK (AP) — Eddie Cotton feels he's "opened the door a little wider" to a light heavyweight title fight with his sensational fourth round technical knockout of previously undefeated Johnny Persol.

The 37 - year - old contender from Seattle, an 8-5 underdog, avenged a split decision loss to New Yorker three weeks ago when he stopped his 23-year-old opponent with a fiery barrage of blows to the body and head at 2:37 of the fourth.

Persol, his back to the ropes and a dazed look in his eyes, was sagging to the floor when referee Zack Clayton sprang in between the two and ended the fight.

But until the sudden flurry, it appeared as if the fast moving quick hitting Persol was on his way to another victory over the old man of the 175-pound division.

"He's real fast and I had to set him up," explained the jubilant Cotton after the Friday night television fight at Madison Square Garden. "I knew I couldn't catch him with jabs and I had to soften him up with body punches."

Cotton had been dropped from No.1 contender to No. 3 following his loss to Persol. Persol had been promoted from ninth to No. 2. Cotton's record is 51-15-1. Persol's record is 11-1. He had won all of his 85 amateur fights, too.

Redskins Have Two Crowns

NEW YORK (AP) — The Washington Redskins, at the bottom of the National Football League heap in most departments during the 1963 season, had two consolations today—the individual and team NFL punt return championships.

Dick James of the 'Skins won the individual title with a 13.4 average for his 16 returns. Detroit's Tom Watkins gained the most yards on returns, lugging the ball 32 times for 399 yards. His 12.5 average gave him second place behind James.

Defending champion Pat Studstill of the Lions, was sidelined most of the season with injuries.

Washington swept the team crown with a 13.0 average for 30 returns. Detroit's 635 yards was the most any team managed on returns but its 11.1 average left it in fourth place behind Washington, Minnesota and Cleveland.

Independents And Skinny's Win In City Tourney Play

In City League basketball tournament action Thursday night, the Independents nipped Taylor Insurance 56-52 and Skinny's overran Jaycees 57-52 to gain berths in semi-final games Tuesday.

The single elimination tourney will continue Monday night with the Merchants meeting Flat Rock and Tom's Signs up against Al's Bar. Winners Monday will play Tuesday against Skinny's and the Independents.

Jim Rogers of Taylor's took scoring honors for the night with 27 points and teammate Don Beaupre hit for 14 for the losers. J. C. Miller had 26 points for the winers and Jack Radicker, 13.

Jim McGovern paced Skinny's Bar with 27 points and Bob Lancour connected for 11. Ron Vogt led Jaycees with 21 and Bill Kissner had 10 for the losers.

Winners on Tuesday will play for the championship on Thursday.

Houghton Skier Eighth In Slalom

STOWE, Vt. (AP) — U.S. Olympic skier Chuck Ferries of Houghton, Mich., placed eighth Friday in the men's giant slalom at post-Olympic ski races here. He was clocked in 2:17.78. Billy Kidd, of Stowe, Vt., won the event with a time of 2:12.17.

Detroit To See Lady Wrestlers

DETROIT (AP) — State Boxing Commissioner Frank Cavanaugh lost a tag-team wrestling match with five feminine state representatives Friday. The result is an end to Michigan's 20-year ban on lady grapplers.

Cavanaugh reluctantly approved three exerimental women's wrestling bouts because the lady lawmakers claimed the ban was "arbitrary discrimination."

"Personally I don't favor women wrestlers," said Cavanaugh. "They're sort of. . .well, I don't know how to put it. . . you know what I mean.

"But three other states allow them and I agreed to these three matches as an experiment." He said the three states are Illinois, Indiana and Ohio.

Cavanaugh said he had invited the five women lawmakers to the first match scheduled for March 21 in Detroit. No opponents have been named.

Junior Ski Team Leaves By Plane For Squaw Valley

TRAVERSE CITY (AP) The 41-member U.S. Skiing Association Central Division junior ski team left here by chartered airliner Friday for the national championships March 16-21 at Squaw Valley, Calif.

The team has 18 Michigan members plus competiotrs from Iowa, Wisconsin and Minnesota. Its head coach is Hans Standteiner of Bessemer, Mich. Team manager is Jack Mason of Grayling.

Royal Oak Man First To Crack Swimming Mark

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Royal Oak Kimball's Doug Webster knifed through Michigan's Matt Mann Pool in 3:59.7 Friday night, becoming the first prep swimmer in state history to crack the four-minute mark in the 400-yard freestyle.

Webster was pushed all the way by former record holder Pete Adams of Birmingham Seaholm, who was clocked at 4:06.7.

Adams' old mark of 4:04.6 was set in 1962 while he was a student at Detroit Pershing. Webster and Adams will meet again in Saturday night's finals.

Defending champion Seaholm is favored to retain its title.

Seaholm's Ken Hefft led 15 qualifiers in the diving preliminaries. He notched 134.25 points.

Dave Nicholson Keeps Swinging

SARASOTA, Fla. (AP)—Dave Nicholson is a man with a problem. He strikes out too much. In fact, he struck out so often last year with the Chicago White Sox that he set a new major league record of 175. It is not somtthing to be proud of.

The new strike zone may have had nothing to do with it but it is a matter of record that three men broke the old American League record. Don Lock of Washington had 151 and Dick Stuart of Boston 144. Donn Clendenon of Pittsburgh set a National League high by striking out 136 times.

"It did bother me a lot," Nicholson said at the White Sox training camp. "But it's all over now as far as I am concerned. You can't let a thing like that get you. Everybody knows I wasn't trying to strike out.

"The whole thing did puzzle me. I'd get my hits. I had 22 home runs and drove in 70 runs. Still I was striking out. Something was haywire but it takes time to find out. A couple of other guys broke the record, too. I think there were 10 or more over 100 in our league.

"The only thing I can do is keep swinging and trying to hit the ball. Maybe I was looking for something too good, getting too choosy. I was called out a lot. Maybe I'll have to go for the first two. When you're striking out a lot you don't get any break from those umpires. I remember once in Baltimore when they called me out on a pitch by Steve Barber that almost hit the ground."

Nicholson is the boy who was paid over $100,000 to sign a contract with the Baltimore Orioles in 1958. The Orioles traded him to Chicago a year ago with Ron Hansen, Pete Ward and Hoyt Wilhelm for Luis Aparicio and Al Smith.

Al Lopez of the White Sox gave Nicholson a chance to play every day and he came through with good power despite his strikeouts and his .229 average.

Ohio U. Faces U-M In NCAA Basketball Final

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—Michigan, conqueror of defending national champion Loyola of Chicago, and upstart Ohio University collide in the finals of the Mideast NCAA basketball regional tournament tonight at the University of Minnesota.

The battle matches Michigan muscle against Ohio speed and hustle.

The odds favor the Wolverines co-champions of the Big Ten and ranked second in the nation in the final Associated Press poll. But the Ohio Bobcats defied the odds Friday night in sidelining fourth-ranked Kentucky, and are brash enough to cause trouble again tonight.

Michigan, which turned back Loyola 84-80, will rely on superior rebounding and the one-two scoring punch of Bill Buntin and Cazzie Russell in its bid for a berth in the NCAA finals at Kansas City next week.

Ohio, which swarmed all over Kentucky and turned the Wildcats into a fumbling, confused team, rolled to an 85-69 victory in the other Mideast semifinal.

"I'd hate to think Ohio can keep us off the boards like they did Kentucky," Michigan Coach Dave Strack said. But he was worrying.

"We've got a psychological problem now," Strack added. "We had the tough game tonight, and now it's out of the way. But I think our kids can be up Saturday night. I have nothing but the highest respect for Ohio."

Houghton Edges Crystal In Triple Overtime Game

MARQUETTE — A towering Crystal Falls Trojan quint forced Houghton into three overtime periods before the defending Upper Peninsula Class C champs were able to squeeze out a 53-51 semifinal victory in the regional tournament at Northern Michigan University fieldhouse here Friday afternoon.

Coach Fritz Wilson's Houghton team will meet Wakefield for the Upper Peninsula champion tonight at 7. Wakefield gained the finals with a 63-46 decision over Soo Loretto in Friday's other semifinal game.

Crystal Falls staged an uphill battle to tie Houghton 45-45 in regulation time, rallying from a seven point deficit early in the fourth quarter.

A field goal by Ted Sachek, 6 foot 5 inch sophomore, gave Crystal Falls the deadlock. Each team hit a field goal in the first overtime period, Jon Fryxell scoring for Houghton and Jerry Divine for Crystal Falls. The Trojans stalled out the final minute and a half for a final shot but failed to get it off before the buzzer.

Fryxell hit again for Houghton in the second extra period and Crystal Falls tied it at 49-49 on a field goal by Sachek. Houghton controlled the ball for the final minute but Fryxell missed his jumper with three seconds to go.

Houghton moved ahead 51-49 on a pair of free throws by Mike Laurin early in the third overtime. Dick Horner, 6 foot 6 inch center, tied it for Crystal Falls with a field goal with two minutes remaining.

Crystal Falls had possession for a solid minute after snaring a Houghton rebound, but lost the ball on a traveling violation with 41 seconds to go. Houghton stalled until the 10 second mark when Horner fouled John Krenitsky who calmly popped in both gift attempts. Crystal Falls had one more chance and Divine drove in but missed his short jumper.

Fryxell turned in an outstanding game for Houghton and led both teams in scoring with 26 points. Jim Messner was the only other Houghton cager in double figures with 11.

Sachek and Horner shared scoring honors for Crystal Falls with 13 points and Roger Sartori added 10.

Wakefield took advantage of 25 Soo Loretto personal fouls to pour in 31 of 43 free throw attempts in the other semifinal clash. The Cardinals connected on 19 of 24 from the line in the fourth quarter alone.

Chris Zuidmulder topped Wakefield's point efforts with 19 while Pat Murphy hit 18 for Soo Loretto before fouling out in the fourth quarter.

Rocky Colavito Signs With K C

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

The baseball exhibition grind may just be starting for most of the major league teams, but Charles O. Finley's forensic exhibitions have ground to a silent stop.

That seems as impossible as Southern senators running out of arguments against civil rights legislation, but it's ostensibly so—at least temporarily.

The Kansas City owner's latest dispute ended Friday with signing of Rocky Colavito, the slugger the Athletics acquired from Detroit in a winter trade.

The contract settlement came on the eve of the Athletics' first exhibition game against Pittsburgh, which was one of 11 scheduled for today.

Finley, the commuting debater from Chicago, said Colavito agreed to a salary of $50,000, a $4,000 cut from his 1963 pay with the Tigers.

The Athletics' boss, whose forensic prowess reached its peak against Kansas City government officials in the stadium dispute, said he outargued Colavito on a clause which would have given the 30-year-old outfielder an extra $25,000 should he be traded during the year.

Colavito will be trying for a comeback with Kansas City. In fact Finley said, "We are expecting a great season out of Rocky and expect him to earn the comeback award of the year."

The 6-foot-3, 190-pounder hit 22 homers and batted in 91 runs last season. That marked the first time in six seasons he hadn't socked 35 or more home runs. The RBI total was his second lowest in six seasons.

While exhibition action in Florida was delayed until today, the Arizona-based teams continued their play Friday. Jack Sanford pitched six innings as San Francisco downed Cleveland 5-2, and Bob Duliba's wild pitch allowed the winning run to score in the Chicago Cubs' 6-5 triumph over the Los Angeles Angels.

In an international meeting at Mexico City, Sandy Koufax pitched three perfect innings and struck out five for the Los Angeles Dodgers, who romped over the Mexico City Tigers 8-3.

Michigan And Denver Tangle For Hockey Cup

ANN ARBOR (AP)—Michigan and Denver will tangle here tonight for the MacNaughton Cup, symbol of Western Collegiate Hockey Association supremacy.

The two teams reached the finals Friday night in a pair of tie games. Michigan needed two overtimes to eliminate Michigan Tech 5-5. Denver tied North Dakota 3-3.

Under playoff rules, scores of the two semifinal are added together. Thus Michigan, which beat Tech 4-3 Thursday night, won the semifinals 9-8 and Denver, which beat North Dakota 6-2 Thursday, won 9-5.

Jack Cole's goal at 7:05 of the second overtime ousted Michigan Tech after Tech's Al Patterson had forced the semifinals into overtime with a third period goal.

Mel Wakabayashi, Gary Butler, Alex Hood and Pierre Dechaine scored earlier for the Wolverines. Tech captain George Hill had two goals, and teammates Fred Dort and Dave Draper each had one.

Michigan now is 22-3-1 for the season and Tech finishes with a 14-12-1 mark.

Name Election Oficials Here

The City Council Thursday night named four men to serve on the election boar dof canvassers and three to serve on a board of election commissioners.

The change is necessary under the new constitution. Two members from each political party must serve under the new provisions.

L. G. Gorsche and Frank M. Gierke Sr., were named to serve on the canvass board until Dec. 31, 1965 and Edward D. Leonard and George R. Matthews to Dec. 31, 1967. This board's only function will be to canvass the count of votes by election inspectors.

Named to the board of election commissioners were Vern Ekstrom, Ray Hughson and Witter Reid. These will appoint election inspectors for each precinct and also will have the duty to certify names and propositions to appear on the ballot.

Gustofson Seeks Council Post

Einar Gustofson, 54, of 106 S. 3rd St., has filed nominating petitions as a candidate for City Council. He is head sawyer for the Manistique Pulp and Paper Co. and has worked 22 years in its barker room.

He is the 10th announced candidate for the three 4-year terms to be filled in the nonpartisan municipal election April 6. The deadline to file is Tuesday, March 17.

Prior to joining the mill staff, Gustofson worked eight years for Brown Dimension Co. and also worked at Inland Lime and Stone Co.

He is married to the former Edith Blomquist and is a member of Local 44 of the Pulp and Sulfite Workers.

Births

A son weighing 6 pounds 6 ounces was born March 13 in Schoolcraft Memorial Hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pollman, West Lake Shore Drive. Mrs. Pollman is the former Jeanne Marie Keyes.

MANCHURIA

Manchuria, with an area of 300,000 square miles, represents the most important geographical region of China. Industrially, it is the most advanced and produces about one-half of the country's steel, according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

PRISCILLA'S POP

MANISTIQUE

MR. AND MRS. PHILLIP Louis Boudrot of Charleston, S.C., announce the engagement of their daughter, Susan Ann to Larry Jon Sell, son of Dr. and Mrs. Harold Henry Sell of Curtis. Susan is a student in the school of nursing at the University of Michigan. Larry is a graduate of the Newberry High School and Northern Michigan University in Marquette and presently is a student at the medical school in the University of Michigan. He is a member of the Blue Key national honorary fraternity and the medical fraternity, Nu Sigma Nu. The wedding will be May 23 in the First Methodist Church in Ann Arbor.

Elks Election Set March 18

Election of officers is scheduled at a meeting of the Elks Lodge Wednesday, March 18.

Nominated are K. W. Eimmerman, exalted ruler, William Larson, leading knight; John Mincoff, knight; Jack Earle lecturing knight; Edward Doyle, secretary; Gerald Grophos, treasurer, Edward Roland, tiler; and Ted Hentschell, retiring exalted ruler, trustee five years.

A St. Patrick's Day party follows with John Kelly as chairman. Induction of 11 new members is also scheduled that night. An 11 p.m., lunch will be served with Emery Barnes in charge.

Architects Meet With City On Three Programs

Architectural conferences were held Thursday by city and other officials with representatives from Harley, Ellington, Cowin and Stirton of Detroit, on plans for an armory, a housing project for the elderly, and exploration on possibilities for a city-county building.

The Housing Authority, appointed this week by City Manager S. C. Gesko Jr., elected Frank Burgess, president, David Rood, vice president and Gesko, director-secretary. A resolution was adopted to have the director-secretary prepare an application, based on survey materials to send to the Public Housing Administration asking for a housing development for the elderly here.

A letter of intent also has been drafted naming the architectural firm to handle the project for the city and make necessary surveys. If a federal grant is not received there is no obligation.

Jack D. Cronk presented the material on housing, while John Jones of the same firm, gave information on the Armory project and was named administrator for it. William Ashley, who also was here for the firm, will be engineer-supervisor in construction of the proposed armory. No decision has been made yet on size of the gymnasium or other facilities the armory will include.

The men met with the Armory advisory committee this Thursday night and received standard architectural contract forms for the schematic design and design development phases, to be studied and acted upon later. If approved, next step will be sending prints of utility locations and soil borings. Local voters have approved a millage levy to finance the local share.

No decisions were made on the joint city-county building proposal.

Social

Goodwill Club

The Goodwill Club met at Hiawatha School Thursday. In cards, Mrs. Roy Briggs, Mrs. Axel Larson and Mrs. Guri Johnson were winners. Hostesses were Mrs. Flossie Tennant and Mrs. Robert Michaels. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Robert Hoard on March 26.

Quill And Scroll Initiates 10

Ten members were initiated in Quill and Scroll at Manistique High School in ceremonies Thursday night following a smorgasbord for 70 in the new gym.

The initiates are Sherri Becks, Carla Chartier, Kathy Gendron, Donna Shampine, Cindy Tiglas, Patsy Berger, Kay Hough, Jane Sawyer, Judy Sheppard and John Wood.

The candle lighting ceremony was led by Mrs. Carl Makel, journalism advisor. Members of the society present included Barbara Taylor, Donna Vincent and Cathy Fagan and alumni, Mrs. Earl LeBrasseur, Mrs. Robert Harbin, Mrs. E. J. Doyle and Mrs. Perry Hollenbeck.

School Supt. E. E. Wuehle spoke on the influence of the school's MHS Crier. Truth, like mercury is hard to catch and has many sides, but it is essential in presenting facts, he cited.

Student journalists were encouraged to report the news, upgrade standards, and show the leadership to experiment, try extraordinary things and methods, seek proper proportions and be responsible.

Frank Kelly gave invocation and Barbara Taylor was emcee. A piano solo was provided by Pierre LaFoille. Margot LeBrasseur and Mollie Sellman were co-chairmen. The event also marked the 35th anniversary of the National journalism honor society.

Briefly Told

Mrs. Robert Knigg of Lake Forest, Ill., has been visiting here with Jean Vallier.

Fine of $5 and costs of $7.50 were assessed in Justice Court against Eugene Fox, 48, of Cooks on a Conservation charge of fishing with too many lines.

State Police ticketed Robert Burns, Newberry, speeding, William Pawley, Gulliver, no registration plates on trailer, Philip Bashore, Gulliver, improper overtaking and passing.

The executive committee of the Luther League of Zion Lutheran church will meet Monday at 3:45 p. m. in Augustana hall.

The Baptist Women's Missionary society meets at 7:30 p. m., Monday at the church with Mrs. Walter Linderoth in charge of the program. Officers will be elected.

At a meeting Thursday night, with the American Legion Post, it was decided the American Legion Auxiliary's meeting April 9 will be at 7:30 p.m., over Harbor Inn, instead of at the Youth Center.

Public Safety officers ticketed Ralph Earl Kennedy, 39, of Cooks for failure to have vehicle under control, after he hit a parked car owned by Mennen Cousineau, 713 Deer St., at 12:30 a.m., Friday.

Fine and costs were paid in Justice Court Friday by Glenn Wood, 733 Cherry St., ticketed for driving too fast, after an accident March 7. One passenger, Tom Elliott, was not injured and another, Gloria Rosebush, had minor injuries.

Churchmen of Zion Lutheran Church meet Monday, March 16 at 7:30 p. m., in Augustana hall. The program will consist of Conservation films. Refreshments will be served by Gus Nye, and Albert Beckman. All men of the church and friends are invited.

Hospital

Discharged from Schoolcraft Memorial Hospital were Peter Olson, Gulliver, and James Lesica, 526 Park.

Best High School Players Will Be Selected By AP

DETROIT (AP) — By tonight, everyone will know the 32 Michigan high school basketball teams that will play in the quarter-finals of the state basketball tournament next Wednesday.

But who are the state's best players?

Are they all playing for the 32 teams who have survived the first two weeks of the tournament?

The answers to this question will appear on the sports pages of the Escanaba Daily Press, Tuesday, March 24, with the announcement of the first All-State High School basketball team selected by The Associated Press.

The Class D team will be announced first, with the star squads for Classes C, B and A following on successive days.

The All-State selections will be a perfect climax to the prep cage season.

Watch for them!

Jinx Hits Top Teams In NCAA

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Friday the 13th jinx struck the NCAA college basketball championship tournament in full force.

Knocked out of the running were Chicago Loyola, the defending champion, Kentucky and Princeton.

Unbeaten UCLA, Duke, San Francisco, Kansas State and Wichita survived in the other second round games and led the way into tonight's quarter-finals.

Michigan put out Chicago Loyola 84-80 and Ohio University whipped Kentucky 85-69 in the Mideast regional at Minneapolis. Connecticut downed Princeton 52-50 in perhaps the biggest surprise of the season in the East regional at Raleigh, N.C., where Duke also thumped Villanova 87-73.

UCLA, the nation's top-ranked team, made it 27 in a row by defeating Seattle 95-90 and San Francisco chalked up its 19th straight by beating Utah State 64-58 in the Far West regional at Corvallis, Ore.

Kansas State made it 12 straight with a 64-60 victory over Texas Western and Wichita took Creighton 84-68 in the Midwest regional at Wichita, Kan.

The night's activities set up these quarter-final pairings tonight: Duke vs. Connecticut at Raleigh, Michigan vs. Ohio University at Minneapolis, Kansas State vs. Wichita at Wichita and San Francisco vs UCLA at Corvallis.

The NCAA small college championship went to the Evansville Aces, who defeated Akron 72-59 before a record crowd of 12,244 at Roberts Stadium in Evansville.

Pan-American of Texas, the defending champions, and Rockhurst won in the semifinals of the NAIA tourney at Kansas City and meet tonight for the title. Pan-American edged Carson-Newman 56-54 and Rockhurst downed Emporia State 66-61.

GETS FIVE GOALS

SPRINGFIELD, Mass. (AP)—The Springfield Indians may have been last in the American Hockey League's Eastern Division but defenseman Dave Amadio put on a championship exhibition in scoring five goals in a 7-1 victory over Rochester of the Western Division.

Previously, Willie Marshall of Providence and Ron Attwell of Cleveland each scored five goals earlier this season but both are forwards.

YANKEES TO POLL FANS

NEW YORK (AP) — During the American League season the Yankees will poll fans who will select former living Yankees for the old timers' game to be held in Yankee Stadium on Saturday, Aug. 8.

RUNS 97 YARDS

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — Wingback Jeff Jordan set four school records with one 97-yard run for Tulsa in the Hurricane's 28-15 loss to Memphis State this season.

The marks were: Longest distance returned on a pass interception; most yards returned in one game by interceptions (117 yards on two interceptions); most yards on two interceptions); most yards returned in season on interceptions (132 yards in four thefts) and most yards returned in a career on interceptions (six thefts for 152 yards, two from last season.)

Jordan seems sure to break his new career and season records. He's only a junior.

AARON IS CONSISTENT

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Hank Aaron of the Milwaukee Braves may never hit .400, a figure once predicted for him and which he agreed was possible. But the outfielder certainly is a consistent man at driving in runs.

In the last five years he has averaged 125 runs batted in per season. He led the National League with 130 last year and has raised his career total to 1,121.

Farmers Divert 194 Delta Acres

Thirty six farms in Delta County have signed for participation in the 1964 feed grain program, Vincent Rappette, chairman of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County Committee, announces. County farms eligible to take part in the program total 194. "Eligible" farms are those which grew corn or barley during the program's base years 1959 and 1960.

Feed grain acreage signed up for diversion through the program now totals 227 acres. Based on farmers' intentions, these producers will earn an estimated $6,085 in diversion payments.

The 1964 feed grain program offers growers who reduce their feed grain acreage by at least 20 per cent of total base to earn a diversion payment for shifting the acreage from production to a conserving use. The participating growers will also qualify for a price-support payment on the normal production of the planted acreage.

The signup is now under way at the County ASC Office and will extend through March 27.

North Western To Start New Train To Green Bay

CHICAGO (AP)—The Chicago and North Western Railway announces it will establish on a trial basis a new daily train service between Milwaukee and Green Bay, Wis.

The railway has proposed discontinuing two trains that now operate between Chicago and Ashland, Wis., and train No. 211 which operates between Chicago and Green Bay.

The trains are operating at a loss of $1,500 a day, the railway says, and the Wisconsin Public Service commission has supported the proposal to discontinue them "contingent upon the institution of a new service of a train in each direction between Green Bay and Milwaukee on the shore line route via Sheboygan and Manitowoc."

Lenske said the new service would be provided by extending train No. 121's run northward to Green Bay. The train now runs between Chicago and Milwaukee. It would leave Chicago at 6:30 p. m., arrive in Milwaukee at 8:30 p. m. and Green Bay at 11:05 p. m.

For the southbound leg, a train would depart Green Bay at 2:30 p. m. and arrive in Milwaukee at 5 p. m.

Mrs. Iverson Dies Friday

Mrs. Hilma J. Iverson, 80, of 807 1st Ave. S., died at St. Francis Hospital at 9 p. m. Friday, where she was a patient for nine days. Her late husband, Andrew, was a former Delta County Sheriff.

Mrs. Iverson was born in Escanaba on April 27, 1883 and had lived here all her life. Her husband preceded her in death on June 11, 1949. She was a member of Central Methodist Church, the Ladies Aid of the church and Royal Neighbors.

Survivors include: three sons, Melvin, Bark River, Earl, Rte. 1 Escanaba and Andrew Jr., Escanaba; six daughters, Miss Crystal Iverson, Mrs. Louis (Fern) Kositzky and Mrs. Norman (Bernice) LaPalme, Escanaba, Mrs. Linder (Ruby) Peterson, Black Creek, Wis., Mrs. Charles (Irene) Jusits, Chicago and Mrs. Jeffery (LaVern) Menard Jr., Detroit; 18 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren and one sister, Mrs. Nathan Brundin, Glenwood, Minnesota.

Friends may call at the Anderson Funeral Home after 4 p. m. Sunday. The body will be removed to Central Methodist Church at noon Monday where services will be conducted at 3 p. m. Rev. Robert Selberg will officiate and be assisted by Karl J. Hammar, pastor emeritus. Burial will be in Lakeview Cemetery.

Orchard House, Concord, Mass., now a memorial, was the home of Louisa May Alcott.

Trolley History To Be Presented Here Wednesday

Recollections of the Escanaba Traction Co. and the era of the electric street cars that served this community for many years will be presented at a meeting of the Delta County Historical Society at the Chamber of Commerce building in Escanaba at 8 p. m. Wednesday, March 18.

Charles Follo, program chairman, said the speaker will be John Wicklander, former motorman, and that guests will include E. F. Zuehlke, former official and motorman and conductors George O'Connell, Henry Grenier, Tony Roeser and Ed Nicholson.

Photographs and other mementoes of the Traction Co.'s history will be displayed.

John J. Mitchell, Historical Society president, will conduct the business meeting that will include reports on the quest for marine park material; the naming of area representatives of the Society in Delta County; and the display of the metal plaque to mark the Centennial "time capsule" vault at the municipal Dock.

Members are invited to bring friends and all interested persons will be welcomed.

Science Course

HOUGHTON — Dr. Eric Bourdo, director of Michigan Tech's Forestry Center at Alberta, has received a $5,680 National Science Foundation grant to conduct an eight-week summer program for high school teachers of science at Ford Center July 1-Aug. 26. Four teachers will be selected for participation.

Briefly Told

Escanaba police have issued traffic court tickets to Jules J. DeGrand, 602 1st Ave. S., disobeying traffic signal; Douglas A. Cartwright, Gladstone Rte. 1, excessive noise; Robert G. Jones, 525 S. 16th St., speeding; Gerry L. Pirlot, 313 N. 19th St., defective headlights.

Woody Smith, deputy chairman for Michigan Week, May 17-23, has called a meeting of all regional and county chairmen in the Upper Peninsula for March 18 at Northern Michigan University at 10:30 a. m., announces Keith Forsberg, Region 2 chairman.

Fred R. King, 20, of 1111 6th Ave. S., has pleaded guilty in Escanaba municipal court to a charge of furnishing false identification to a person under 21 to be used for the purpose of obtaining alcoholic beverages, and was ordered to pay a fine of $25 and costs of $5. He was arrested by Escanaba police.

Msgr. Bassett Addresses Ladies Of Altar Society

FLAT ROCK—The March meeting of the Ladies Altar Society of the Holy Family Church of Flat Rock was held last night in the church hall with Mrs. Art Tourangeau Jr. presiding.

Rev. Thomas Andary led the prayers for the cause of Bishop Baraga and Mrs. Clarence Theoret read to the members an article from the Word magazine.

Mrs. Art Tourangeau Jr. and Mrs. Art Beauvais were elected to attend the MDCCW Convention in Ironwood.

Following the meeting Msgr. Ronald Bassett, retreat rector of the Marygrove Retreat House at Garden, showed slides and spoke to the ladies on retreats.

Two guest prizes were given and winners were Mrs. Fred Germain and Mrs. George Julian. Juice and coffee were served by the Carroll's Corners area with Mrs. Ed Solis and Mrs. Bruce McGuigan, co-chairmen.

More than 3,000 people were crushed to death at the coronation of Tsar Nicholas II of Russia, according to Encyclopedia Britannica.

Castro Is Sorry He Studied Law

HAVANA (AP)—Fidel Castro says he would be a scientist rather than a lawyer, if he could make the choice again.

Calling on Cuba to direct its energies toward a technical revolution, Castro told a rally Friday night he is "sorry" he studied law instead of one of the technical professions.

"We don't need more lawyers," Castro said. He urged young Cubans to consider scientific studies, especially in such areas as food production to improve the country's standard of living.

Menominee On Parade Today For St. Patrick

MENOMINEE — Menominee county's Centennial Belle will occupy a place of honor in the St. Patrick's Parade this afternoon in downtown Menominee.

Mrs. Jeanette Poquette of Powers will appear in the parade riding in an open convertible. Mrs. Poquette has been designated by Gov. George Romney as a Michigan ambassador to the St. Petersburg Fla., Festival of States celebration March 31-April 4 as the state's official representative.

Mrs. Poquette was selected last summer in a county-wide contest to name a "Belle" to reign over the Menominee county Centennial celebration. The parade was to start at 3 p. m.

Marshals Robert G. Murphy and Dr. Francis Dewane were to lead the parade with Colleen Sharon Lee Wright and her court, followed by the Menominee High School Band and the city's new fire truck and all the Irish or near Irish who are still ambulatory by 3 p. m.

Powers-Spalding

Elmer Behrend was elected president of the Powers Village Board at a meeting held Monday. Other officers included Leo Pietsch, clerk, Mrs. Walter Peterson, treasurer, Melvin Behrend, assessor, and Henry Bal, Walter Verhagen and David Corriveau, trustees.

School Board

Kenneth Doyle, Menominee attorney, was guest speaker at the meeting of the Powers-Spalding School Board on Thursday.

NEWBERRY

Citizens Meet With State Road Representatives

Joseph Hobrla, Electrical Devices engineer, and Del. Brewer, assistant of the Michigan State Highway Department at Lansing, met with local citizens and members of the Citizen's Committee Thursday in the Community Building relative to the petition for traffic lights on Newberry, McMillan Aves. and John St.

The meeting resulted, as did a previous one held in November, in a deadlock in difference of opinions over statistics.

The Highway Department contends that the installation of traffic lights increases the number of traffic accidents in the area, and are not warranted unless the volume of traffic is heavy. Their chart recording on intersections where traffic signals were installed did show an increase in traffic accidents but, it also showed a decrease in casualties from nine to three.

On questioning, highway representatives stated that their figures for need of the requested signals are computed for an eight hour period, not on short periods of highway congestion of traffic. On this basis, they say Newberry Ave. would qualify for traffic lights and the John St. intersection at times, but not the McMillan Ave. intersection. Side streets must qualify also.

At a suggestion from Patrick Quinlan that the slowing of traffic in the school zone would help the children in crossing the street. The representatives present offered to take up the matter of reducing speed limits in the vicinity, and meeting with the city council on the matter.

Those present at this meeting exclusive of the state representatives were, Mayor Edward Munson, Superintendent of Schools J. L. DeCook. Mrs. James Squire, representing the B&PW Club, Mrs. C. A. Kaurama, F. J. Taylor, Patrick Quinlan and Mrs. Minnie Ida Mattson from the Citizen's Committee, and Larry Suboski from the Michigan State Highway Department here.
